FIRM PROFILE: Rose Law Firm, a Professional Association, traces its origin from the partnership formed November 1, 1820, before Arkansas statehood by Chester Ashley (1791-1848), later a U.S. Senator, and Robert Crittenden (1797-1834), Arkansas' first Territorial Secretary. "Rose" first appeared in the firm's name in 1865 when U.M. Rose (1834-1913) joined George C. Watkins (1815-1872), an early Chief Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court and previous partner of Ashley. Rose was a founder of the American Bar Association and was elected its president in 1900. Today, the firm provides a broad range of legal services to its individual and corporate clients engaged nationally and internationally in a variety of industries; including consumer products, retailing, forestry, transportation, computer services, insurance, investment banking, poultry and other food products, and financial services. Members of the firm are active in professional organizations and are frequent lecturers in continuing legal education programs. Six of the firm's former members served on the Arkansas Supreme Court, three as Chief Justice. Six members, two of whom are now active in the firm, have served as President of the Arkansas Bar Association. Present members of the firm have also served as Arkansas Supreme Court Chief Justice, United States Bankruptcy Judge, President of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, Chair of the Board of the National Legal Services Corporation, Mayor of Little Rock, President of the Little Rock School Board, Delegate to the Arkansas Constitutional Convention of 1970, Arkansas State Representative, and are active in numerous civic and public agencies.

VIA HAND-DELIVERY

Dear Ms. St. Eve:

Please find enclosed as RIC-093527 through RIC-093550, a copy of the closed client file list prepared by Vince Foster and his secretary upon his departure in January of 1993. This list as been redacted to eliminate all information other than client names. Also enclosed as RIC-093551 through RIC-093571 is a copy of the list prepared by Vince Foster and his secretary of his personal files. This list is being produced in unredacted format. According to Mr. Foster's secretary, all the files on the personal list were taken by Mr. Foster upon his departure, other than those files contained in boxes 4 and 5 which relate to the administration of his father's estate. These file remained with the firm because the firm was the attorney for that case.

Also enclosed as RIC-093526 is a copy of the piece of paper in the draft file list which indicates the "Clinton" files taken by Mr. Foster upon his departure. This document has been redacted on the instructions of David Kendall.

Finally, we are preparing a list of clients from Mr. Foster's old closed file list. As soon as that is prepared, I will forward that list to you for review.

Very truly yours,

Ronald M. Clark
