On Thursday, August 22, 1993, Detective Pete Markland and I responded to the White house to meet with Special Agents Scott Salter and Dennis Condon of the FBI to conduct interviews. The purpose of the interviews were to reconstruct the final hours of Vincent Foster's life.

Myself and Special Agent Condon interviewed Ms. Betsy L. Pond; Staff Assistant to Bernard Nussbaum, Chief Counsel for the White House. The interview took place in an office that was unoccupied for the day. Present in the room during the entire interview were Clifford Sloan; associate counsel to Nussbaum, and Paul Imbordino; assistant Special Agent in Charge, Office of Protective Operation, U.S. Secret Service. Clifford Sloan took notes throughout the interview. During the interview Bernard Nussbaum burst into the room and demanded "is everything all right?"

We started the interview at approximately 0900 hours. Ms. Pond got in to work at around 0900 hours on Tuesday, July 20th. Usually there is a staff meeting of the counsel's office from 0900 to 0945 hours each morning that Vincent Foster would attend. She assumed he was at the staff meeting as she didn't see him when she arrived at work. She first recalled seeing him outside in the Rose Garden. The President was nominating Judge Freeh at the ceremony as the new director of the FBI.

She doesn't recall Vincent Foster having any visitors on Tuesday. The first conversation she had with him was about lunch around 1200-1230 hours. He said he would eat at his desk. He ordered a medium rare cheeseburger, french fries and coke. She and Linda Tripp went to the cafeteria and ordered his lunch. She recalled there were M & M's on the tray with the food because Linda wanted them. He sat on his sofa and ate lunch in his office.

At around 1300 hours he came out of the office and stated "I'll be back, there are M & M's left in my office". Ms. Pond recalled that she and Linda were in the office when he left. She wasn't sure if Tom was in the office or not. Tom Castleton is a young college graduate working in the office. There was nothing unusual about his emotional state. In fact, over the last several weeks she did not notice any changes, either physically or emotionally. She noticed no weight lost. She was unaware of him taking any medication or seeing any doctors. I asked here would she be surprised if I found out he was seeing a psychiatrist. She said yes. She was not aware of any depression problems. She had no information whether he owned any weapons.

Ms. Pond said she left work at approximately 1845-1850 hours on Tuesday; but, before she left at around 1820 or so, Maggie Williams (Mrs. Clinton's Chief of Staff) called for Vincent. She paged Vincent and left the White House number for him to call. She recalled no other phone messages for Vincent.

She learned about Vincent's death from messages on her home answering machine around 0500-0600 hours on Wednesday, July 21. She came into work at 0700 hours and was the first person in. The door to Vincent's office was closed when she arrived at work. She believed that Tom Castleton or Bernard Nussbaum were the last persons out of the complex on Tuesday and one of them would have closed the door to Vincent's office. She went into his office and "squashed" the papers together that were on his desk. She realized that she shouldn't have touched the papers as soon as she did it but probably did it out of habit.

When I questioned her if she had been told how to respond to our questions, she stated that Clifford Sloan (who was present during our interview) and Steve Neuwirth, both associate counselors, had called them all together on Wednesday evening and told them they would be questioned by the police and for them to tell the truth.

Office Personnel Interviews

The following two people were interviewed at the West Wing of the White House by Detective Markland and Special Agent Salter on 7/22/93. The information provided by these two individuals was brief.

Tom Castleton (Staff Assistant) @ 1000 hours:

Mr. Castleton stated that he worked on 7/20/93 and remembers that Mr. Foster ate lunch at the office, although he could not place the time. Mr. Castleton was present when Mr. Foster left the office after eating lunch and said "So Long". Mr. Foster did not respond and seemed to Mr. Castleton to be "In his own world", focused, disturbed.

Linda Tripp (Executive Assistant) @ 1150 hours:

Ms. Tripp stated that she began her workday on 7/20/93 at 0800 hours. Mr. Foster's demeanor seemed normal to her, however, she had no personal dealings with him on that day.

Ms. Tripp makes it a habit to notice what the staff members are taking with them when they leave the office in order to determine for herself how long she may expect them to be away from the office. Ms. Tripp was absolutely certain that Mr. Foster did not carry anything in the way of a briefcase, bag, umbrella, etc... out of the office.

Investigation continues.

On 7/22/93 I received a telephone call from the following person:

Patrick Nolton
HCR #6 Rt #231
Etlan, Va. 22717

Work address-
2424 Pa. Ave NW #508
PH-202-296-3989

4:30 pm call

During this conversation he stated that he was travelling N/B on the GWMP at approximately [redacted] at which time he pulled into the Fort Marcy parking lot for the purpose of relieving himself. He stated that he recalled that as he was parking he noted a "brown foreign car with Arkansas plates" that was pulled into one of the first parking spaces available. Approximately 2-3 spaces away was what was described as a 1990 light metallic blue Honda with va. tags. This vehicle was backed into the parking spot. It was occupied by a W/M described as follows:

W/M, 25-30 yrs, 5'10"- 5'11", 170lbs, thin, mixed mexican/American, short hair, tan complexion

Mr. Nolton stated that as he got out of his vehicle this male subject was staring at he which made Nolton feel uncomfortable. Mr. Nolton relieved himself and immediately left the area. He stated that as he was pulling out from the Ft. marcy area he noted a older Chevy or Ford van, 1980's, dark brown, possibly a conversion type , to be driving into the parking area.

Investigator John C. Rolla 07/27/93

On 07/27/93 myself and Captain Hume conducted an interview with Mr. Berl Anthony concerning case number 93-30502, death investigation of Vincent FOSTER, Jr.

Mr. Anthony is the brother-in-law of Vincent Foster, Jr. Mr. Anthony stated that he has known Vince Foster for thirty-five years. Mr. Anthony is married to Mr. Foster's sister Sheila. Mr. Anthony stated that he and his wife were very close to Vincent Foster and that Vince Foster had lived with he and his wife for ninety days when he first came to Washington, D.C. Mr. Anthony stated that he and his wife had noticed a gradual decline in Mr. Foster's general disposition to the point of depression. Mr. Anthony stated that Mr. Foster was not handling the politics in Washington, D.C. very well and blamed himself personally for the failed nominations for Attorney General and some of the sub-Cabinet posts. Mr. Foster also was very upset over some unfavorable articles printed by the Wall Street Journal in the last several weeks and seemed to take them personally. Mr. Anthony stated the Mr. Foster was also concerned about his legal advice and his role in the firing of seven White House travel office aides, aka (Travelgate).

During the month preceding Mr. Foster's death, Mr. Anthony stated that he and his wife noticed that Mr. Foster's depression had become increasingly worse and became very worried about Mr. Foster's well being. Mr. Anthony stated that he believed his wife had given Mr. Foster a list of three counselors, psychiatrists or other doctors who do counseling. Mr. Anthony stated that during a conversation approximately three weeks prior to Mr. Foster's death, Mr. Foster made a comment to the effect, I have spent a lifetime building my reputation and now I am in the process of having it tarnished.

Mr. Anthony stated that the last time he spoke to Mr. Foster he believed was the morning of July 12, 1993. Mr. Foster had called him and stated that he was worried that there might be a Congressional inquiry into the above mentioned firings of seven White House travel office aides. Mr. Foster asked Mr. Anthony to refer him to an attorney. Mr. Anthony stated that he thought this an odd request because Mr. Foster was a man who kept his own counsel and was not open even with the people who knew him best. Mr. Anthony stated that he got some information together on six different attorneys and it was taken by courier to Mr. Foster's residence on July 15, 1993 at 6:53 pm.

Mr. Anthony stated that he knew that Mr. Foster owned an old gun, but he hadn't seen it in a long time. Mr. Anthony was shown a photograph of the firearm but could not positively identify it as the one owned by Mr. Foster. Mr. Anthony stated that Mr. Foster's father had owned a couple of guns and that Mr. Foster's sister Sharon Bowman, picked up the guns from the family house in Arkansas shortly before the fathers death. Interview: Lisa Foster

On 7/29/93 at approximately 1610 hours Lisa Foster, wife of Vincent W. Foster, was interviewed at the law offices of Swidler & Berlin, 3000 K Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C. The interview was conducted by Detective Peter W. Markland and Captain Charles Hume. Mrs. Foster was represented by Mr. James Hamilton. Also present, at Mrs. Foster's request, was Mr. Beryl Anthony and Mr. John Sloan.

Mr. Hamilton prefaced the interview by stating that there would be no waiver of the attorney-client privilege between himself and Lisa Foster. Prior to any disclosure of this report Mr. Hamilton requests that he be consulted. Lisa Foster then provided the following information:

-Lisa and the rest of the family were in Washington, D.C. in November 1992 and again around Easter 1993. They remained in Arkansas the remainder of the time because of school year considerations. Mr. Foster lived apart from his wife and family until June of this year when the family moved to Washington to join him.

-Pressures associated with his role at the White House were physically affecting Mr. Foster adversely. Specifically citing not being able to sleep well and telling his sister, Sheila Anthony, that he was not feeling well and was experiencing high blood pressure.

-The criticism of the President in the news media, the Travel Office investigation, the scrutiny by the press of the people from Arkansas, and even the stress of the family move to Washington in June all seemed to Lisa Foster to have a cumulative effect on Vincent Foster. He "took it all personally" and once stated to her "How did I get myself into this?".

-Vincent Foster historically dealt very well with stressful situations but was used to being in charge and in control of situations while in Arkansas, control that he lost when he took the position at the White House. He also lost the outlets for stress with the family life that he enjoyed while in Arkansas. Lisa and he talked about this and had begun an effort to rectify the situation by taking time out for themselves. They had just traveled to the eastern shore and, although it had not gone particularly well, discussed that things would take time and not change overnight.

-Vincent Foster had an extreme loyalty to the Clinton Administration and was trying to protect it. He felt he had personally failed and talked to Lisa about quitting, however, would not return to Arkansas (because of the personal humiliation he felt). Lisa Foster felt that something physical came over Vincent quickly.

-Mr. Foster's sister, Sheila Anthony, had recently provided him with the names of three psychiatrists in the event he should seek their care. It is not known whether or not he contacted any of these doctors. The Foster's family doctor, Larry Watkins, was contacted in Arkansas and he prescribed an anti-depressant, Trazodone 50 mg., for Mr. Foster. Lisa and Vincent discussed the prescription and Mr. Foster decided to start with the lowest possible dosage. Vincent Foster took one 50 mg. tablet of Trazodone on the evening of 7/19/93.

-The last time Lisa Foster saw her husband was on the morning of July 20th at approximately 08:30 A.M. when he left for work driving the Honda. She left the house shortly thereafter for an appointment and does not know whether or not he returned to the residence that afternoon. Her son may have been in the basement during the early afternoon but it would be possible for Vincent Foster to enter and exit the residence without the son realizing his presence. On that particular morning Vincent Foster's mood seemed better than it had been "in a while".

-The torn note produced by the White House counsel's office was viewed by Lisa Foster on 7/26/93 at the White House. She stated that it was, indeed, Mr. Foster's handwriting. She also stated that she had counseled him to write down his concerns and he probably did so in preparation for any upcoming investigation into his activities and decision making processes. It is Lisa Foster's opinion that the note was written 1-1½ weeks before his death.  (Mrs. Foster and Mr. Hamilton have requested that the document be turned over to the custody of the family at the conclusion of this investigation.)

-Mrs. Foster stated that she was used to a number of guns being present at her home in Arkansas due to the different lifestyle there. She was presented with a photograph of the weapon found with Mr. Foster's body but was unable to identify it. She suggested that her sister-in law, Sharon Bowman, may be able to identify the weapon. Mrs. Bowman is an outdoors type person and would have a better knowledge of firearms owned

She said that they had an employee who works in Building 213 near the Washington Navy Yard who may have some information reference to the Foster Investigation. She furnished his home and business phone numbers. He was questioned over the phone by Detective Markland on July 26, and again by me on August 2. The following is a summary of the information he provided:

On July 20, Ferris was on his way home to Sterling Park, Virginia from Washington, D.C. [redacted]. He always takes the George Washington Parkway home from work and drives past Fort Marcy Park. He passed Fort Marcy between 2:45 p.m. - 3:05 p.m. on July 20, 1993. He was driving north on the Parkway in the right lane when he noticed a dark metallic grey, Japanese sedan, cut from the left northbound lane into the right lane and turn abruptly into Fort Marcy. The vehicle was occupied by a single white make who was the driver. He remembered an out-of-state license tag with blue letters, Mid-Western State of Ohio or Arkansas. He recalled the state lettering in the lower right corner. The letters were blue. He thought it was unusual to see an out-of-state vehicle go into Fort Marcy. He was unable to offer any further description of the vehicle or driver.

Interview: Deborah Gorham

Deborah Gorham is the Executive Assistant that was assigned to Vincent W. Foster. Her desk is located in the common area between the two offices in the West Wing of the White House occupied by Mr. Bernard Nussbaum and Mr. Foster, respectively. Other persons occupying this common office space are Betsy Pond (Executive Assistant to Mr. Nussbaum), Linda Tripp (Executive Assistant), Tom Castleton (Staff Assistant), and Marlene McDonald (Volunteer).

The interview took place in a West Wing office at approximately 0900 hours and was attended by Det. Markland (USPP), S/A Salter (FBI), and Assistant White House Counsel Steven Neuwirth.

Ms. Gorham stated that she did not know Mr. Foster before she was hired on March 8, 1993 and had no social relationship with either Mr. Foster or any member of his family. On 7/20/93 she left the office at approximately 1130 hours, which is the last time she saw Mr. Foster alive. She stated that she did not note any unusual behavior by Mr. Foster on that day.

Ms. Gorham recalled a conversation with Mr. Foster on Thursday, 7/15/93 when he discussed the differences in working for a law firm and working for the government. She placed no significance on the conversation at the time and, in retrospect, it still seemed to be a normal comparison.

Ms. Gorham was asked if Mr. Foster would have any reason to deal with physicians directly on a professional basis due to his involvement with the Health Care Reform proposals under consideration. Ms. Gorham stated that there was no reason whatsoever for Mr. Foster to deal with physicians professionally.

The interview was about to be terminated when Mr. Neuwirth asked us to remain and took Ms. Gorham out of the room to speak to her. A very short time later they returned and Ms. Gorham stated that there was one thing she thought may be important that she recalled. On Thursday, 7/15/93, Mrs. Foster had called her and asked for Mr. Foster's pay schedule, explaining that she believed their checking account was overdrawn. The Credit Union was contacted and they stated that they would work with Mrs. Foster on a weekly, instead of a biweekly, basis. After that conversation Ms. Gorham was authorized by Mr. Foster to pick up a statement every Friday for Mrs. Foster. Ms. Gorham did not see this as a real problem or place any significance on it.

This initial interview was concluded at approximately 0930 hours.

At approximately 1450 hours, immediately after the inventory of Mr. Foster's Office by White House Counsel (reference report under this case file number by Capt. Hume), Det. Markland and S/A Salter were asked to remain and were ushered into Mr. Nussbaum's office by Mr. Neuwirth. Ms. Gorham was brought in and she stated that she had just remembered some conversations that she thought were important to our investigation. Within the last two weeks Ms. Gorham had received calls from Mr. Foster's eldest son and Mrs. Foster inquiring about Vincent Foster's mood. They specifically asked how "he" was doing, not how the work was going, and seemed genuinely concerned.

Investigation continues.

Dr. Larry Watkins

On August 2, 1993, I made telephone contact with Dr. Larry Watkins in Little Rock, Arkansas, (501-661-9740). He is an internist. I advised him that I had received information that he had called Vincent Foster on July 19, 1993, at 10:47 a.m.. He confirmed that he did in fact call. He was returning Foster's earlier call to him. Foster told him he was under a lot of stress, that he had a loss of appetite and was losing weight.

Dr. Watkins asked him if he was depressed and he said he was. He prescribed an antidepressant, Desyrel, generic name Trazodone. He called the prescription into a Washington, D.C. pharmacy at phone number 202-337-4100. The District of Columbia Yellow pages lists Morgan Pharmacy at 3001 P st. N.W. with that phone number.

Dr. Watkins said that was the first time he had prescribed medication to Foster for depression. He gave Foster a complete physical December 31, 1992 and at that time Foster was not taking any medication. Lisa Foster called him at approximately 10:20 p.m. central time on July 20th to discuss his death.

Dear Captain Hume,

Last night I visited with Mrs. Sharon Foster Bowman and asked her if she could identify the pistol in the photograph you had given me last week.

Mrs. Bowman said it looked like a gun she had seen in her father's collection. She particularly pointed out the "wavelike" detailing at the base of the grip. I asked if she remembered any other features. She did not.

I am returning the photograph along with this letter. I will provide copies of this letter to Mrs. Bowman and Jim Hamilton.

Yours truly

Dear Captain Hume,

Last night I visited with Mrs Sharon Foster Bowman and asked her if she could identify the pistol in the photograph you had given me last week.

Mrs. Bowman said it looked like a gun she had seen in her father's collection. She particularly pointed out the "wavelike" denturing at the base of the grip.

I asked if she remembered any other features. She did not.

I am returning the photograph along with this letter. I will provide copies of this letter to Mrs Bowman and Jim Hamilton.
