SECURITY OATH

1. I, AARON I. Lofton about to be authorized to have access to cryptologic information or material of the Department of the Army, do solemnly swear (or affirm) and declare without any mental reservations whatsoever that I will protect such information or material to the best of my ability and that I will not disclose or discuss such information or material to or with any unauthorized person or persons, and, further, that I will discuss or disclose such information or material only as required in the proper conduct of official business.

2. I will thoroughly familiarize myself with the pertinent security provisions, instructions, and principles set forth in existing regulations or those hereafter promulgated. I fully appreciate and understand that the preservation of the security of cryptologic information and materials is of vital importance to the national interests of the United States. I also fully understand that improper disclosure or loss of such cryptologic information or material would subject me to punishment by either military or civil courts as prescribed in the applicable military regulations and public laws.

3. I further understand that my removal from an assignment requiring access to cryptologic information and material automatically bars me from further access to such information or material, and I hereby declare that I will never, after such removal, discuss such cryptologic information and material even after my retirement or release from the service of my country unless freed from this obligation by unmistakable and categorical official notice.

4. I will report without delay to my superiors the details or circumstances of any case which comes within my knowledge wherein an unauthorized person has obtained or is attempting to obtain cryptologic information or material or wherein such information or material may be or is being disclosed or removed in an unauthorized manner.

So help me God

On April 12, 1968, JEFF RICHARDSON, Richardson's Store, Ripley, Mississippi, advised that about twenty or twenty five years ago, a man whose first name he could not recall, but whose last name was GAULT traveled in the vicinity of Ripley, Mississippi, proclaiming himself to be a "black shirt" and extolled the virtues of ADOLPH HITLER and the Nazi Party. RICHARDSON stated that to the best of his memory, (First Name Unknown) GAULT did not have any children.

RICHARDSON continued that GAULT was a brother of EZRA GAULT, who at that time farmed in Tippah County, Mississippi. RICHARDSON described EZRA GAULT as a white male, who is now approximately 55 years of age, and who currently resides on Highway 90 at Lowtey or Lawton, Florida, where he is engaged in the pulp wood and saw mill business. According to RICHARDSON, EZRA GAULT was, when in Tippah County, and still is, a business partner with TOMMY TATUM. TATUM, the brother-in-law of RICHARDSON, is a white male, approximately 55 years of age, who resides in the same city in Florida as GAULT.

RICHARDSON continued that TATUM and EZRA GAULT moved to Bearer Creek, Alabama, about 20 or 25 years ago, where they resided several years. RICHARDSON could not recall how long they resided in Alabama. He stated that they then moved from Alabama to Lawtey or Lawton, Florida. RICHARDSON advised that EZRA GAULT has one daughter, but no sons.

RICHARDSON was unable to furnish any additional information concerning the GAULT family.
