They serve you best...

The Chevron Standard Men

The men who operate Chevron Dealers and Star Stations are the most experienced men in the station business. They've been on their jobs an average of 10 years. That's over twice as long as any other group of dealers. But the best thing about these experienced men is warm, friendly welcome they'll give you.

warm, moist, well-drained soil, 1000 ft.

24 REWOUND EMPIRE
Famed for magnificent fern-forested redwood groves, preserved in State Parks along U.S. 101, the north coast region also provides miles of streams with leaping steelhead and trout, some of hunting grounds, some of the state's most rugged coastal panoramas.

11 SAN FRANCISCO-OAKLAND BAY BRIDGE

A myriad of things to do and sights to see are offered in San Francisco, "Gateway to the West" and bustling Oakland, linked together by spans of steel.

HEARST SAN
SIMEON STATE HISTORICAL MON.

Tours through the fabulous castle with its gardens, swimming pools and guest houses on the "enchanted hill" reveal precious art treasures while zebras, deer and other wild animals roam the area.

15

15 SOUTHERN BEACHES
Ocean breezes, cool and fresh, a temperate surf, fine State Parks, fishing piers and miles of wide, dean beaches provide surf and sand fun that attract millions of vacationers from nearby metropolitan areas. There are fishing and excursion boats as well as a passenger ferry to popular Santa Catalina Island.

San Diego

Only minutes by car to the U.S. border and Old Mexico, San Diego's origin dates back to the first permanent West Coast settlement by Europeans. Old forts and missions provide exceptional historic interest, while Balboa Park offers a wide variety of cultural and recreational activities.

② Mr. SHASTA
Rising abruptly from the valley floor, this snow-capped extinct volcano, over 14,000 feet high, provides summer and winter vacationing.

The figure consists of two parts. The left part is an aerial photograph showing the bridge under construction, with a large crane and the bridge structure visible. The right part is a map of the area, showing the bridge crossing the river, with labels for Red Bluff, Chico, and Yuba City, and the Yuba River and Chico Lake.

16 PT. LOBOS RESERVE ST. PARK
Near Pt. Lobos, where wind-twisted Cypress cling to rugged cliffs that rise abruptly from the sea, is Carmel with its Mission, quaint shops and white sand beaches. Also in this region are world-famous resorts, golf courses and shoreline drives. Nearby historic Monterey has fishing fleets, shops and wharf restaurants.

11 SANTA BARBARA MISSION
One of California's most beautiful missions, founded in 1786, is in a setting of palm-lined streets and tile-roofed homes. Nearby mountains, State Parks, resorts, and lovely beaches, contribute to the area's vacation appeal.

12 LAKE ARROWHEAD

11 LOS ANGELES

Located a mile above sea level in the San Bernardino Mountains, this popular resort features excellent summer and winter recreation. Especially noteworthy are fishing and winter skiing. Approached by the famed "Run of the World Drive," this area is close to Palm Springs and Los Angeles.

1 LAASEN VOLCANIC NATIONAL PARK
Built of layered lava, and often covered with snow, Mt. Lassen dominates a variety of volcanic sights. Hot springs, mud pots, cinder cones and caves invite investigation while lakes, trails, ski slopes and campsites attract the action-minded.

3 SHASTA DAM
One of the world's largest dams has slowed a mighty river to establish the vast Shasta Lake recreation Area.

4 SUTTER'S FORT, SACRAMENTO
The fever of the Gold Rush days is captured within the walls of this authentic replica where 1849 relics are displayed.

9 STATE CAPITOL, SACRAMENTO

Near the center of California in a 40-acre park, are the legislative buildings which serve the nation's fifth growing state. See Crocker Art Gallery, Governor's Mansion, Sutter's Fort and state museum. Nearby are the Sierra Nevada Mountains, Gold Rush country and exciting western wonderlands.

and world-famous line its shore and is permitted along Nevada side.

1 SEQUOIA AND KINGS CANYON NATIONAL PARKS

In this region of unbroken wilderness, mountains, canyons, rivers and lakes, there are redwood trees over 3000 years old and 300-foot Mt. Whitney.

7 YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK
Thundering waterfalls, sparkling glacial lakes and awesome granite walls create staggering vistas from the valley floor. Hiking trails lead to spectacular points of interest in high wilderness country.

osphere, 282 feet below sea level. Also found in this valley of searing desert are eroded rock formations, sand dunes, and hardy plants and animal life. In the Visitor Center the story is depicted in a fascinating manner.

Mojave and Colorado Yuccas.

A map of the study area in the Blythe River watershed. The map shows the Blythe River flowing from the top right towards the bottom left. The Joshua Tree Nat'l Mon. is indicated by a shaded area in the center. The Blythe River is labeled 'Blythe' at its mouth. The map also shows the location of the 'head' of the river and the 'mouth' of the river. The map includes a scale bar and a north arrow.

El Centro

Mt. SAN JACINTO

An aerial tramway carries passengers from desert floor to the upper slopes of Mt. San Jacinto, often snowcapped, which towers above resorts and spas of world-famous Palm Springs.
