Masaryk's Death Back In Spotlight

Czech Officials To Reinvestigate 20-Year-Old Disputed Mystery

PRAGUE, April 2. — (UPI) — The Czechoslovak state prosecutor's office announced Wednesday it will reinvestigate the controversial death of former Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, a disputed mystery for 20 years.

The body of Dr. Masaryk, son of the founder of Czechoslovakia, was found in the courtyard of the Foreign Ministry March 18, 1948.

The Communist regime which had just seized power said he committed suicide by jumping from a bathroom window. For two decades belief has circulated both here and abroad that he was murdered. His death symbolizes the brutality of Stalin era rule for millions of his countrymen.

An announcement by deputy general prosecutor Frantisek Zabransky that the case would be reopened was viewed as part of the liberal trend in the new Communist regime which took control last January. The senior Masaryk, for years a "non person," has been rehabilitated.

Meanwhile, the change in the Czech government continued. Deputy Premier Otakar Simunek and Defense Minister Bohumir Lamsky resigned Wednesday as the new reformist leadership pushed a sweeping reshuffle of the Communist government and party hierarchy. The two formerly were supporters of the ousted president and party chief, Antonin Novotny.

British Wage Battle Due

LONDON, April 3. — Battle lines were drawn Wednesday between the Labor government and labor unions as the government in a white paper announced details of tougher policies to hold increases in wages, salaries and dividends to 3 per cent a year.

The government proposes to take reserve powers to delay pay and price increases 12 months to require price cuts where recommended by the prices and incomes board, moderate and phase rent increases and to prevent excessive dividend by corporations.

Despite opposition from union officials in and out of Parliament on the wage curbs, and despite the loss of popular support in recent by-elections, cabinet ministers believe they can exact the forthcoming legislation, although with a reduced majority.

However, observers believe the test will come when the government tries to enforce the 3.5 per cent ceiling in the face of hostile union demands for wage increases of 5 per cent and more.

Nigerian Cease-Fire May Be Near

LONDON, April 2. — (UPI) — A Socialist peer, Lord Brockway announced Wednesday he had received a letter from Nigerian rebel leader Lt. Col. Odumegwu Ojukwu indicating a ceasefire was being prepared for a ceasefire.

Lord Brockway, chairman of an All-Party Committee for Peace in Nigeria, quoted Ojukwu as saying he was prepared for an immediate cease-fire and negotiations "without recriminations on either side."

Russia Charges Red Chinese Interference

MOSCOW, April 2. — (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged Wednesday that Red China detained a Russian tanker carrying supplies to North Vietnam and that Chinese soldiers broke down doors and used force against its captain and crew. It was the third case this year of official Soviet protests against detention and alleged mistreatment of Russian ships and sailors in Chinese ports.

Panama Court Studies Impeachment Data

PANAMA, April 2. — (AP) — The Panamanian Supreme Court went to the shuttered Legislative Palace Wednesday to study documents related to the impeachment and dismissal of President Marco A. Robles by the National Assembly March 24. An injunction before the court alleges that the impeachment proceedings against Robles were illegal and unconstitutional. The court will rule on this probably by week's end.

Guntire Downs Patrol Plane, US Confirms

SAIGON, April 4. — (UPI) — The United States Command confirmed Thursday that a Navy patrol plane with 12 men aboard was shot down Monday while participating in an operation against gun-running in the Gulf of Tonk off South Vietnam's west coast.

An official announcement said only that the plane reported being "hit by anti-aircraft fire." Other sources had reported earlier that the helicopter-torpedo craft, a P-3 Orion, was fired on by a Cambodian ship.

The command said the bodies of two crewmen were recovered and search operations were continuing.

The plane had been patrolling between the island and the mainland as part of Operation Market Time, the command reported. The operation is an allied sea and air campaign to intercept enemy junks and trawlers bringing arms and supplies to the Viet Cong.

The Orions usually operate about 80 miles off the South Vietnamese coast.

Victory Is Seen As Allied Drive Nears Khe Sanh

Thousands Of Troops Knife Within Three Miles Of Besieged Fortress

By THOMAS CHEATHAM
SAIGON, April 4. — (Thurs. day). — (UPI) — A Marine general declared the battle for Khe Sanh won as thousands of allied troops Thursday knifed to within three miles of the besieged outpost in a juggernaut to "put the enemy out of business" in northern South Vietnam.

United States military spokesmen said American helicopter gunships supporting the troops trapped a North Vietnamese company of 120 men in an open field and killed 20.

Heavy fighting Wednesday was reported in two areas north of Tan Son Nhut Air Base near Saigon. Spokesmen said 20 to 25 Communist lie in the clashes with allied forces.

Advancing eight miles behind columns of tanks rumbling over a bootstrapped, rutted road, 10,000 United States Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen were out to crush the North Vietnamese armies that had laid siege to Khe Sanh since Jan. 21. They sought to secure all of South Vietnam's northwest corner near the Laotian border, a key Communist infiltration corridor.

It was the first time last September that American forces ventured along the Highway 9 that links Khe Sanh with vital coastal supply points.

The going was slow. Mines and boobytraps were plentiful and black elephant grass along the roadside held unknown danger. Troops hacked through the grass, 11 feet high in spots, to protect engineers clearing the road.

There was little resistance from Communist troops, although they blew up 17 bridges along the line of march.

In the air, United States planes Wednesday continued to hit North Vietnam well below the 20th Parallel border established by President Johnson's limited bombing halt.

Navy pilots hit rail sidings and bridges in the southern peninsula. Spokesmen said their northernmost strike was a rail siding 12 miles northwest of Thanh Hoa, 15 miles below the 20th Parallel.

United States air cavalrymen poured into Khe Sanh's surrounding hills in swarms of helicopters. They found enemy foxholes and trenches and said some of the peaks, almost within sight of Khe Sanh, were still alive from blistering artillery and air bombardments.

In Da Nang, Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman said American firepower coupled with the courage of the 10,000 defenders had won the battle of Khe Sanh.

Cushman, commander of I Corps, said the big push was the second stage of a counter-offensive to secure South Vietnam's entire northwest corner. (Picture and Map on Page 1. Additional Story on Page 1B)

"We had no choice," said a burly art student, his black beard whitened by soot and smoke. "We've been brought up on Rubens and Van Dyck. Risking our lives was the least we could do."

"I've never seen anything like it," said a police officer. "The kids never even hesitated. They just jumped in and got to it."

Flaming timbers dropped around their heads as some used pocketknives to loosen the masterpieces from cumbersome, ornately carved wooden frames.

The salvaged masterpieces included Rubens' "Flagellation" and "Holy Sacrament" and the "Carrying of the Cross" by Van Dyck. Experts said the paintings, even the most seriously damaged, could be restored.

The Commercial Appeal and Memphis Press-Scimitar, which reported the discovery of the paintings, said the paintings were found in a hidden room in the attic of a house in Antwerp.
