FROM THE DESK OF
MAURICE A. HARR,
CAPTAIN
CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION
4-21-68

Attached is a memo received from Los Angeles last week with reference to James Earl Ray & our translation.

FROM: Los Angeles, Calif.
MEMO: Galveston Police

1. James Earl Ray loves Western & terror pictures. His favorite movie place in L. A. was Cameo Theatre on S. Bway. He has sat besides me several times in the movie but I never knew he was wanted*.

* Wanted men are posted so high in post office that they aren't really easy to see. Didn't spot him because of it. This man likes the sea; always a different green grass, glamour & color, and a warm atmosphere. The answer is Galveston - a colorful place. It would be nice if you would get him; good publicity, too.

2. He will be found in such movie theatre, not high sounding ones, like Paramount, etc. He was there only in afternoons until dark. I noticed him as he appears unassuming, quiet, not troublesome. These are reasons he has not been apprehended.

Re Kansas City teletype, 5/3/68.

Submitted herewith is a single copy of a photograph taken of JAMES EARL RAY, Aka Eric S. Galt, in the Fall of 1967. It is believed this is a copy of the photograph furnished by one PATRICIA ANDERSON to a U. S. Postal Inspector. RAY in his correspondence with PATRICIA ANDERSON did use the name ERIC S. GALT.

For information of Kansas City, investigation at Los Angeles on May 2, 1968 showed subject as ERIC S. GALT possibly submitted 5 letters of introduction and photographs of himself to "The Local Swinger," Post Office Box 3802, Downey, California. This is a correspondence club and letters presumably were sent for transmittal to individuals on club list. One PATRICIA ANDERSON, 2800 Glenview, Los Angeles, located and interviewed. She said she received, unsolicited, two advertisements from "The Local Swinger," one letter and photograph from ERIC GALT, which she furnished U. S. Postal Inspector. She said mail came to her addressed to "PATRICIA SCHUBERT," her maiden name. She claims no information concerning club and was not a member. Stated she had no contact with GALT, does not know him, and believes her name possibly secured from an old magazine subscription list.

Re: Telephone call to Springfield from Inspector THOMAS

MARGRET CARMICHAEL STRADER, wife of ROBERT HOOD STRADER, was contacted at the residence of her father, E. P. CARMICHAEL, Route #1, Lexington, Illinois, on 4/30/68. Mrs. STRADER advised she and her husband were at the CARMICHAEL residence the weekend of 4/20-22/68. She advised that on the night of 4/21/68 or early morning of 4/22/68 her husband was awakened by the dogs barking outside the farm residence which is located up a farm lane one-half mile from the main rural road. She advised her husband and her father, E. P. CARMICHAEL, upon making a search of the outside area, found that the STRADER's 1967 Oldsmobile Delta "88", cream colored with black vinyl top, had been broken into. Mrs. STRADER advised nothing was missing from the car and no one was located or seen in the area. Mrs. STRADER advised her husband left alone from the CARMICHAEL residence on the morning of 4/22/68 en route Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. STRADER advised that in a short period of time, Mr. STRADER returned to the CARMICHAEL residence. Upon his return, STRADER stated he had found a note in the recessed area of the speedometer of his car. (Mrs. STRADER pointed out that the speedometer has been broken; therefore, her husband was not normally attracted to the speedometer). She related this note was made up of words cut from newspapers and pasted on the back of a pocket calendar (unable to describe the calendar). Mrs. STRADER said the note read in substance, "If you go to the police or the FBI you will be killed." Mrs. STRADER advised her husband, after returning with the note, proceeded en route Detroit, Michigan, and after a short period of time had elapsed, he telephonically contacted her, stating he was at the Holiday Inn, Bloomington, Illinois. Mrs. STRADER stated her husband informed her that upon reaching the road one mile north of the CARMICHAEL residence, and Route 66, he saw a 1966 or 1967 Chevrolet, tan in color, no license information, with two men in the car, parked along the road. Mrs. STRADER stated her husband told her that this car followed him en route Bloomington. However, they did not turn into the Holiday Inn when he did. Mrs. STRADER advised her husband then told her he was proceeding on to Detroit, Michigan,

Mrs. STRADER advised upon discussing above with her parents, her mother, Mrs. E. P. CARMICHAEL, stated she had noticed a late model, tan car, making several trips on the main rural road near the CARMICHAEL residence on the early morning of 4/22/68.

Mrs. STRADER advised that on the night of 4/22/68 her husband telephonically contacted her, but he would not disclose his location as he stated he was afraid to mention his location over the phone. She related her husband told her that he stopped at a rest stop area after leaving Indianapolis, Indiana. Upon leaving his car and walking the direction of the men's restroom, he saw a tan automobile occupied by two men driving very slow. He stated at this time the rider in this automobile fired a shot at him. STRADER told his wife the shot just missed his ear and he, STRADER, hit the ground where he laid as if he had been hit. STRADER stated that the tan car disappeared and he has not seen it since.

Mrs. STRADER stated her husband believesthis action was due to his being in the men's restroom at the Gulf Truck Stop, Lebanon, Tennessee, on 3/27/68, where he allegedly overheard five men planning to kill Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Mrs. STRADER stated her husband told her that one of the men in the restroom was RAY, whom he recognized after RAY's photograph was published. She stated he further informed her that he would be able to recognize the other men he saw in the restroom. Mrs. STRADER advised she recalls being at the Gulf Truck Stop at Lebanon, Tennessee, on 3/29/68. She stated upon their leaving the truck stop, her husband did not mention to her anything of hearing of the plan to kill KING. She stated she does recall her husband remarked, "If King goes back to Memphis he will be killed." Mrs. STRADER advised her husband did say he wanted to see CARL STERN of NBC, Washington, D.C, whom he knew but did not state why he desired to see STERN.

Mrs. STRADER advised her husband returned to the CARMICHAEL residence at Lexington, Illinois, on Friday, 4/26/68, where he stayed until the morning of Saturday, 4/27/68, at which time STRADER and his mother-in-law had an argument over Mrs. STRADER's son by a previous marriage. Mrs. CARMICHAEL told STRADER to leave, which he did.

Mrs. STRADER stated she told her husband she had contacted Mr. DONALD T. SULLIVAN, Assistant Special Agent in Charge, Springfield Office of the FBI, and that he, STRADER, should call Mr. SULLIVAN and set up an appointment; that Mr. SULLIVAN had informed her he would make an appointment to meet STRADER at any location or at any time when STRADER was available. Mrs. STRADER stated her husband told her he was afraid to attempt to meet with FBI Agents, as he felt he was being followed. Mrs. STRADER stated she was unable to convince her husband to make arrangements for a meeting with the FBI. She advised her husband is very much interested in obtaining protection.

Mrs. STRADER advised of some of her husband's activities, which are not concerning the murder of Dr. KING. She advised that she does not know all of her husband's business and that she is sure he has not told her all he knows.

Mrs. STRADER advised her husband is acquainted with RAYMOND STARNES of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, who told STRADER in the summer of 1967 that there were several businessmen in the area of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, who were taking up a collection to obtain money to have KING assassinated. Mrs. STRADER advised her husband is well acquainted in the Baton Rouge and Denham Springs, Louisiana, area. She stated he was, in the summer of 1967, connected with the E.C. Donnell Construction Company of Denham Springs, La., which was doing construction work for the telephone company. She related E. C. DONNELL lives in Dallas, Texas. She related DONNELL had an equipment rental business and while STRADER and DONNELL were attempting to rent the equipment they were trying to gain financing for a recreational park in Louisiana similar to "Six Flags Over Texas." She related that some way they came in contact with a CHARLES and LILLIAN SHAPIRO (ph) of Miami, Florida, who advised they could finance same but were not interested, in a recreational park but would be interested in financing a horse racing track. Mrs. STRADER advised Mr. DONNELL obtained RAYMOND STARNES to help locate his land which could be used as a horse racing park. He also obtained sanction of the sheriff, (FNU) IRWIN and SAM BOSKO, both of Slidell, La; however, "things got out of hand" and an article appeared in "Life" magazine, and the Governor of Louisiana placed a stop to the entire operation.

Mrs. STRADER advised her husband is in telephonic contact with her daily but declines to furnish information as to his location over the telephone, as he is very afraid. Mrs. STRADER was advised to inform her husband if he has any information he desires to furnish to the FBI, he can contact any FBI Field Office, who will then arrange for an interview with him.

For information receiving offices, Inspector THOMAS E. BISHOP, SOG, on 4-24-68 advised he had received a telephone call from CARL STERN, Washington, D. C., NBC Office, who told him that a man (FNU) STRADER, whom he had met on one occasion while covering a story in the South, had, on 4-24-68, telephoned him from someplace around Toledo, Ohio. STRADER informed him he was en route to the home of his wife's parents in Lexington, Illinois. He then told STERN a "fantastic tale" about him, STRADER, overhearing a conversation on 3-29-68 in Lebanon, Tennessee, concerning the killing of MARTIN LUTHER KING. Apparently STRADER was of the impression that the people involved in the conversation knew he had overheard them, and they had taken his license number. STRADER believed there had been at least one shot fired at him since that time. STRADER informed STERN he had vital information concerning KING's murder and called STERN for advice as to what he should do. STERN advised STRADER to call the Springfield Office of the FBI and they would make arrangements to have someone meet him at his convenience in their territory. According to Mr. STERN, BISHOP stated that STRADER is afraid to approach any office and may desire to have someone meet him at a location other than an office.

The files of the Springfield Office contain the following references to ROBERT STRADER, however, it cannot be determined at this point whether or not they refer to ROBERT HOOD STRADER of Lexington, Illinois:

On 11-19-65 ROBERT STRADER, 6'1" - 2", 175 lbs., employed cutting timber near Edwardsville, Illinois, and in construction work at Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, Illinois, was considered a suspect in the robbery of the Hamel State Bank, Bufile 91-20560, Sifile 91-2642.

SI 44-561

In 10-66 prosecution of ROBERT H. STRADER was declined in an ITSMV matter which involved a rental car. ROBERT H. The following investigation was conducted by
Special Agent PRINCE G. MELTON:

AT INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI:

On April 29, 1968, Mrs. WILLIAM R. DANIELS, 1313 Franklin Ave., phone CL 2-7660, advised that on April 28, 1968, she and her husband were fishing on the Missouri River near Fort Osage, Missouri. There was a white male in a 1957 to 1959 automobile with light tan body and white top who had four guns. This individual wore a T-shirt and khaki pants. She said that he had some kind of handgun and three long-barreled weapons, which may have included a shotgun.

At the time that she and her husband arrived on the scene, Mrs. DANIELS said that another man and a 12 to 14 year old boy were already there. This boy had a rifle and was shooting out over the river, as well as the first individual with the four guns. The man and the boy were there for about five or ten minutes after the DANIELSes arrived and then they departed. There was no indication that the man and the boy had any connection with or were acquainted with the first man. She could not recall what type of vehicle the man and the boy were driving, but it was parked in back of the tan car. In the limited area where the cars were parked, it was necessary for a car to back up and then turn around to leave the area.

Mrs. DANIELS said she and her husband arrived on the scene about 3 or 4 o'clock on April 28, 1968, and her husband often fishes near this area. The first individual with the several guns was quite careless in his handling of the weapons and both Mr. and Mrs. DANIELS became afraid and left the scene.

Mrs. DANIELS thought that this unknown individual was a man approximately the height of her husband, which she thought to be about 5'10" or 5'11", but somewhat heavier than her husband. The man could have been about forty years old. Mrs. DANIELS could not describe very accurately a scar on the forehead of this man, but thought it was to one side of his forehead. She was shown photographs of JAMES EARL RAY and concluded that in her opinion the individual on the river did not resemble the fugitive RAY. She said, however, that her husband had a closer look at the man and she thought the photographs should be displayed to him.

On April 30, 1968, WILLIAM R. DANIELS was interviewed at his home, and he described the first individual with the guns as a white male, about 5'10", weight about 135 to 150 lbs. DANIELS at first said the individual was 5'11", which he considered his own height. It was pointed out to DANIELS that his height in all probability was less than 5'11", and he finally agreed that he was perhaps not over 5'10", so he adjusted the height of the unknown individual to 5'10". DANIELS, who weighs 125 lbs., indicated that the unknown individual was heavier in the chest than he and probably weighed 135 to 150 lbs. He thought the man may have had blue eyes, dark complexion, dark brown hair, and all of his teeth. He thought maybe the man's left ear did stick out further than his right ear. He said that the man had a 3/4" moon-shaped scar on the right corner of his forehead. DANIELS said he did not observe any scar in the middle of the forehead of this unknown individual.

He said that the man actually had three guns, one being a Luger pistol which he was firing when they arrived, plus a shotgun which was possibly a single-barreled Stevens. DANIELS could not see the action on the shotgun, but guessed from the barrel that it was a single-shot weapon. The individual also had a bolt-action, military-looking rifle, similar to the World War I 30-06 Springfield. The shotgun and the rifle were lying on top of the roof of a 1959 light tan Ford with cream top. DANIELS said this car bore a Missouri license tag, green and white, and he believed it was a two-door automobile.

DANIELS looked over the photographs of JAMES EARL RAY and said that the individual on the river was similar in appearance to RAY, but he could not, of course, state that this man was identical with RAY, especially since he had a noticeable moon-shaped scar on the right side of his forehead and did not have a scar in the center of his forehead.

DANIELS advised that he became afraid of this man because of his careless handling and pointing of the weapons. DANIELS was afraid for the safety of his wife and children, and he and his wife shortly departed the scene. The individual also attracted DANIELS' attention because he seemed to be picking up the spent cartridge cases after he fired the weapons in his possession. DANIELS conceded that if the man would reload his own cartridges, this could have been logical activity on the part of the unknown individual.

It is observed that there is considerable variance between the description of RAY and the description of the man on the river furnished by DANIELS and his wife, and Mrs. DANIELS does not believe that the photographs of RAY even resemble the man that they observed on the river.

DANIELS also described a third car being on the scene when he first arrived, which was in possession of a young man about twenty, shooting what could have been a .30 Caliber rifle out over the river. He couldn't recall what kind of car this was, but he remembered it was an older model. This young fellow also left the scene before DANIELS and his wife departed.

It was DANIELS' recollection that the man and boy previously referred to were in a 1967 or 1968 red pickup truck, possibly a Chevrolet or Ford.

DANIELS recalled that the unknown individual, whose actions he thought were suspicious, did, in fact, speak to him cordially, asking "Did you have any luck fishing," but DANIELS indicated that he was afraid of the man and thought he was careless with the guns so there was no extended conversation. DANIELS walked by this man and then came back by the man, so he had a good look at the man's face.

DANIELS said that the spot where this individual was shooting can be reached by going east on Highway 24 to Buckner, Missouri, and turning left, proceeding north to an intersection which leads to Fort Osage off to the right, but by continuing on this road past this side road to Fort

Osage, you come to a levee which is down on the Missouri River, and the scene is reached by driving on across this levee, and just to the right after crossing the levee is the area where the vehicles were parked and the individuals were shooting out across the river.

The following investigation was conducted by
Special Agent PRINCE G. MELTON:

AT KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI:

On May 1, 1968, STERLING JUNIOR HILL, 9104 Walnut, phone JA 3-0790, advised that he was an inmate in the Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City, Missouri, while JAMES EARL RAY was also an inmate in that institution. HILL advised that he was employed in the prison hospital, at first preparing dentures and later as supervisor of nursing. HILL advised that he was never a close friend of RAY, and they actually resided on opposite sides of the prison. RAY was in the hospital a few times on sick call, but was never actually checked in to occupy a bed. RAY just picked up his medication and left. HILL said, therefore, that although he knew RAY to speak to him, he had never had an extended conversation with RAY and actually knew very little concerning RAY's personal life or friends at the prison.

He remembered RAY as a "loner", who always acted like he was troubled. He remembered that RAY seldom smiled, and he judged that RAY was preoccupied with his own thoughts. After RAY escaped, HILL thought that probably RAY was thinking about his escape plans rather than the events closer at hand. He viewed the photographs of RAY and indicated they were good likenesses, recalling that RAY did cock his head a little to one side.

HILL said he would have no idea as to RAY's whereabouts, since RAY had never mentioned any escape, any friends inside or outside the prison, and had never given any possible itinerary if he left the prison. HILL said that since someone would probably make some money for turning RAY in, he himself would contact this Bureau if he ever does see RAY on the outside. HILL said that his own nickname was "Shotgun" while he was in the prison at Jefferson City, Missouri.

It will be observed that the whereabouts of STERLING J. HILL was obtained through JUNE A. HILL, Attorney (no relation),

The following investigation was conducted by
SA JAMES W. SAMMON:

On the dates indicated, motels and Standard Service Stations on the below listed major highways in north central and northeastern portion of the State of Mississippi were contacted in this matter. Personnel at motels were exhibited composite drawings of ERIC STARVO GALT, also known as John Willard, Harvey Lowmeyer, received from the Memphis and Birmingham Divisions, along with a color photograph of a bedspread and bath towel received from the Memphis Division. Personnel at these motels failed to identify the composite photographs of GALT, as well as the bedspread or towel as property of their particular motel. The guest registration cards of motels contacted were personally checked by SA JAMES W. SAMMON from the period of March 29 to April 5, 1968, inclusive in an effort to determine if any guest using the name GALT, WILLARD, or LOWMEYER registered at that motel. These checks met with negative results.

Standard Service Stations on the indicated highways were also contacted and personnel at those service stations were also exhibited artist's conceptions of GALT, along with the colored photographs of the Standard Oil map of the United States and the Standard Oil map of Georgia - Alabama. Personnel at these service stations were questioned regarding a 1966 white Mustang with an Alabama tag. Contacts at these service stations also met with negative results.

DONALD SEWELL, employee, 7-11 Store, Number 34, 6099 Millbranch, Southaven, Mississippi, after being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the investigation, furnished the following information:

He stated that the 7-11 Store purchases its beer from the Service Beverage Company at Clarksdale, Mississippi.

He stated that the Schlitz delivery man appears at that store every Wednesday.

He advised after examining his stock of Schlitz 12 ounce pop top cans that he had two six packs in his refrigerator with the date March 15, 1968. He stated that this 7-11 Store uses Toreador paper sacks. He advised they do not utilize a number or size 20 paper sack.

He was displayed artist's conception drawings from Birmingham and Memphis, Tennessee.

SEWELL recalled that in the latter part of March, 1968, a white male approximately 5'9" to 5'10" in height, age 27 to 28 years of age, small frame, with a dark crew hair cut, wearing a gray suit with black pin stripes, glasses with black rims, purchased beer at that store.

SEWELL stated that he could not recall what brand of beer this individual bought or how he paid for it.

SEWELL stated that he recalled this incident as the authorities in Memphis, Tennessee, had put a curfew on beer and liquor sales and that at the same time this individual was in the checkout line, a highway patrolman came to the store and told him to cut off beer sales.

According to SEWELL, the patrolman advised him that the individuals in line could make their purchases but no other individuals would be allowed to purchase beer. SEWELL estimated the time at 3:30 p.m.

He stated that he recalled this incident as after this white male purchased the beer, he, SEWELL, had to request him to leave the store as he was "cursing" due to the fact that the beer sales had been cut off.

SEWELL stated that he had to tell this individual to leave the store.

SEWELL again stated that he believes this incident took place during the latter part of March, 1968, when the City of Memphis first experienced racial problems.

SEWELL stated that he had never seen this individual before and has not seen him since. He stated he did not see which way he turned when he left the store nor did he observe an automobile.

He stated that this individual vaguely resembled the artist's conception drawing from Birmingham.

SEWELL stated that he doubted he could recognize this individual if he saw him again.

Located at the Southaven Minnow Shop, Highway 51, just south of the Tennessee State Line in Mississippi, were numerous six packs of Schlitz twelve-ounce beer in the pop-top can, held together in the six pack with a plastic ring, which beer was brewed by the date March 15, 1968. A can of this beer was obtained.

Also located in that minnow shop was a brown paper bag stamped "Homestead. Stubby. 20". One of the brown paper bags was obtained.

BILL and JANE MC LAUGHLIN and their son WILLIE MC LAUGHLIN, the proprietors of that minnow shop, were all interviewed in this matter, and composite photographs of GALT exhibited to them with negative results. Neither they nor LAWRENCE PARKER, a frequent customer to the minnow shop, could identify GALT by photograph, nor did they recall an individual driving a white Mustang with an Alabama license purchasing a six pack of twelve-ounce pop-top Schlitz beer from their minnow shop.

Mr. MC LAUGHLIN advised that GUS (last name unknown), a salesman for the Service Beverage Company of Clarksdale, Mississippi, delivers their beer to them, and that from his records, on April 1, 1968, he purchased 17 cases of twelve-ounce Schlitz pop-top beer; on April 10, eight cases; on April 11, six cases; and on April 15, 1968, two cases.

It was noted that the Southaven Minnow Shop is one-half mile south on Highway 51 from the Tennessee State Line in Mississippi and exactly three miles south of the Oliver Rexall Drug Store on Highway 51, Whitehaven, Memphis, Tennessee.
