She advised that she did not see GALT for approximately two or three more weeks. She said that she is not sure of her dates because she was sick for one week, and it was immediately after her illness that she saw GALT.

MARIE MARTIN stated that some time during the month of January 1968, GALT moved into the St. Francis Hotel. MARIE MARTIN was interviewed at her residence, Apartment 201, St. Francis Hotel, 5533 Hollywood Boulevard. MARIE MARTIN furnished the following information:

She first met ERIC GALT in the Sultan Room at the St. Francis Hotel, a bar where she is a cocktail waitress and serves beer. Her first meeting was about mid December 1967, when during casual conversation she asked GALT if he would take her home. GALT said he would take her home and then she told him she lived in New Orleans. She explained to GALT that her cousin, RITA STEIN, had to pick up her children in New Orleans and GALT then agreed to drive to New Orleans. Later the same evening, GALT either took her to RITA STEIN's residence or RITA was at the bar and took GALT to her residence to meet RITA's brother, CHARLES STEIN. MARIE MARTIN did not remember whether she was at the STEIN residence that evening. Later the same evening, when GALT learned that CHARLES STEIN would accompany him to New Orleans instead of MARIE or RITA, GALT made the statement to MARIE that "If its a set up I'll kill him. I have a gun". MARIE reassured GALT that it was not a set up but only RITA STEIN's need to get her children. GALT then made the condition that RITA, CHARLES and MARIE had to register for GEORGE WALLACE in California and arrangements were made to register the next day. The following day, RITA, CHARLES and MARIE met at the Sultan Room and GALT picked them up in his Mustang. MARIE paid no attention to the conversation on the way to register for WALLACE, nor did she remember anything at the registration.

GALT's Mustang was believed to be forest green in color and very plain inside in that there were no extras, such as a console, FM radio or airconditioning. MARIE recalled one occasion when GALT told her he had had difficulty driving through a Negro community because of the Alabama license plates on his car and that tomatoes had been thrown at it.

After GALT returned to Los Angeles from New Orleans, MARIE saw GALT in the Sultan Room about 30 times. During these occasions she made the following observations:

GALT usually drank straight vodka and maybe had a tap beer on occasion. She never saw GALT smoke, nor was the ashtray near him ever dirty. GALT may have eaten a bar snack called beef jerky once or twice, but did not have a habit of eating while drinking.

GALT had very clean hands, not calloused, fingernails clipped short and no rings or wristwatch were observed. GALT appeared to be pale and not tanned as if he were indoors a great deal. GALT's eyes were blue, sometimes appearing hazel when the pupils were very large. GALT's eyes were best represented by the composite drawing from Birmingham, Alabama, but no other composite came close. GALT's expression was always very solemn and showed no emotion.

She and GALT once played a game of pool but GALT was not good, although he had probably played before. On one occasion in February 1968, GALT stated that he had just finished a six-week bartender school course, but could only make a screwdriver. GALT gave the impression to MARIE that he had been married once just by his cool manner.

The last time MARIE saw GALT was when they traded television sets and MARIE and GALT carried his console television from his room in the St. Francis Hotel to her apartment in the hotel. GALT's room was very neat and seemed picked up at that time. Nothing was noted laying around the room and it appeared GALT had moved out and the television was all that remained. The television was carried to the elevator, brought to the second floor and put in MARIE's apartment. At that time GALT was in the apartment for approximately ten minutes showing her how to work the television and at that time gave her $20.00 in addition to the trade.

Regarding the portable television set she traded for ERIC GALT's console-type television set, she is almost certain it was a General Electric with 21" screen of plastic material with built-in rabbit ear antenna with a handle on top. On the right corner in front was a push-pull on and off button and to the side of this was believed to be a push-button channel changer. Both of these buttons were recessed which served to conceal them. On the right side of the television was a magnetic-type cover under which were the three small adjustment knobs, i.e. horizontal hold, vertical hold and brightness.

She could not identify the photographs of the personal belongings of GALT as any possessions of his she had ever seen.

STEIN advised that GALT told him this being placed on the ticket would give WALLACE some sort of power. STEIN advised that he was told by GALT that he need not vote for WALLACE in the election and GALT only wanted him to register for WALLACE. STEIN further advised, in reference to his registration for WALLACE, that he now remembers GALT having carried on a conversation at the place of registration on Lankershim Boulevard in Los Angeles. STEIN stated that GALT had talked with a nice-looking elderly man in the rear of the registration location, while he, MARIE, and his sister, RITA, were registering.

STEIN stated that, while en route to New Orleans and at a point just outside of New Orleans, GALT specifically repeated his name to STEIN. STEIN stated that it was his impression at that time that GALT wanted him to know GALT only by the name of GALT. STEIN stated that he gathered this very same impression when GALT registered for a motel in New Orleans and in a loud and distinct voice told the desk clerk his name was ERIC S. GALT.

STEIN further stated that the expenses of their trip to New Orleans and their return to Los Angeles were nearly all paid for by GALT. He also advised that GALT paid cash for any expenses they incurred and he noticed that GALT had at least two or three $20.00 bills in his possession. STEIN stated that during the trip to New Orleans they passed through a bad snow storm which had caused the road to become icy. STEIN advised that GALT was driving at the time, and was speeding. STEIN stated that he became concerned over GALT's ability to handle the car on an icy road and he instructed GALT not to brake the car if they started to skid. He stated that he then fell asleep and was awakened by GALT's losing control of the Mustang and going into a spin. STEIN advised that the Mustang went off the road, and finally stopped in a field, about two hundred yards from the road. STEIN stated that GALT later admitted starting to skid and then hitting the brakes. STEIN advised that it is his impression GALT had never driven in snow or on icy roads before.

STEIN advised that while enroute to New Orleans, GALT told STEIN that he had to contact two or more men in New Orleans. STEIN stated he got the impression that these men were associated with a contracting or engineering firm. STEIN also stated that from this conversation with GALT, he also remembers that the men, or the firm, were located in the Chalmet (phonetic) suburb. STEIN also stated that he believes GALT mentioned a "Jackson Barracks" as being in the vicinity of those individuals he needed to contact.

STEIN stated that during a conversation he had with GALT while in New Orleans, GALT told STEIN that he had seen STEIN on a street while he (GALT) was in a bar. STEIN advised that the only possible area where this could have occurred would be in the 400 or 500 block of Canal Street, near the river, in New Orleans.

She further stated that she had maintained a list of all the people that she had registered. RIVETT produced instant list and a careful search failed to reflect any registration for ERIC STARVO GALT.

RIVETT stated that she could not recall any of the details of registering one CHARLES J. STEIN and that outside of reading the name in the newspapers, had never heard of ERIC STARVO GALT.

C. M. HEDGPETH, 406 South Second Street, Mail Forwarding Agent, advised he recalls a telephone inquiry from an individual who identified himself as ERIC GALT, and GALT made inquiry concerning his Mail Forwarding Service. The service was explained to GALT, and he was told the service would cost $3.00 per month, and in addition to the $3.00, the subscriber to the service would be required to pay all postage.

HEDGPETH advised he forwarded to GALT literature regarding this service at GALT's address, the St. Francis Hotel, 5533 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California. GALT in turn sent HEDGPETH $3.00 in cash and asked to be a subscriber from February 1, 1968, to March 1, 1968, and wanted all mail forwarded to St. Francis Hotel address in the name of ERIC S. GALT, ERIC S., or E. S. G.. GALT was also mailed Post Office Form 1583 which authorizes HEDGPETH to forward mail to GALT. GALT signed this form and returned the form to HEDGPETH. HEDGPETH in addition sent GALT another letter whereby he asked that he forward an additional $1.00 to cover postage. This communication was never replied to by GALT.

HEDGPETH advised that he advertises his services in the "Los Angeles Free Press," Popular Mechanics, Political Science, Mechanics Illustrated, and the National Informer. He advised he assumes GALT probably learned of his business through the "Los Angeles Free Press," because most of his inquiries about the service originating in the Los Angeles area is due to his advertising in the "Los Angeles Free Press." HEDGPETH stated he was certain GALT had never used the forwarding service, because his records showed no postage credited to GALT's account.

HEDGPETH advised he has had no further correspondence or telephonic inquiry from anyone identifying himself as ERIC GALT, and he could furnish no other information.

K10 Piece of paper and a cloth square each containing twelve samples of laundry marking printed by a thermo-seal marking machine manufactured by the Textile Marking Company, Syracuse, New York, and obtained from Home Service Laundry and Dry Cleaning, 5280 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, California

Result of examination:

The three pink tape strips in K8 and K9 are similar to the Q69 and Q70 laundry tapes in color, construction and composition.

The twelve laundry tapes (K10) are similar to the Q69 and Q70 laundry tapes in color, construction and composition.

Five of these tapes have the same length (1 1/16 inches) as Q69 and Q70. The other nine are longer, either 1 3/32 inches or 1 1/8 inches in length.

The K8 and K9 tapes were found to differ in printing from the tapes appearing on Q69 and Q70.

The tapes comprising K10 are of varying lengths; however, no significant differences were noted between the Q69 and Q70 laundry tapes when compared with some of the K10 tapes indicating they may have originated from the same machine.

Specimens K8, K9 and K10 are retained.

Result of examination:

It was concluded that ANITA LOUISE KATZWINKEL, K26, did not prepare the questioned handwriting "Ginger & Anita Katzwinkel" appearing on Q118, the portion of a tissue box, previously submitted. Because of unexplained variations and insufficient comparable material, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether KATZWINKEL prepared any of the remaining questioned handwriting on Q118. Some significant handwriting differences were noted in this remaining questioned handwriting excluding the words "Day" and "at pool." These words are too limited and contain insufficient handwriting characteristics to determine if they were or were not prepared by KATZWINKEL.

Due to the lack of a sufficient number of significant comparable letters, it was not possible to determine if the words "Broulh" and "Olkahombe" on Q118 were prepared by the person or persons responsible for the remaining questioned handwriting appearing on this specimen.

It was concluded that the FLIKEID signatures appearing on the bottom of K27, were prepared by THOMAS M. FLIKEID, FBI#534039D.

Because of insufficient significant comparable handwriting and unexplained variations, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether the questioned Lowmyer signature on the gun invoice previously submitted or the writings attributable to Eric S. Galt, previously submitted, were prepared by the writer of K27. Some handwriting differences were noted in the handwriting attributable to Galt when compared with K27, however, these characteristics are not sufficiently strong to definitely eliminate FLIKEID as a possible writer of the Galt material.

The K28 and K29 maps are not identical with two maps, Q18 and Q20, previously submitted and recovered from the blue bag in Memphis.

Q139, Q140, K27 through K29 are temporarily retained. Appropriate photographs of the writing appearing on K27 have been made.

One 8 inch head hair of Caucasian origin was found inside the Q139 left shoe. This has been dyed black. No similar hairs were found in or on items previously submitted in this case. No other hairs or debris was found in Q139 or Q140.

NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS DESCRIBING
DR. KING'S APPEARANCES IN THE LOS ANGELES AREA MARCH 16 AND 17, 1968

Dr. King Won't Be A Politico

Rev. Martin Luther King has no intention of running for any political office.

The civil rights leader, asked about reports the Peace and Freedom Party might want him as a presidential candidate said here yesterday:

"I've made it very clear that I have no intention of running on any ticket. I don't have any political aspirations."

King spoke at the Second Baptist Church, 2412 Griffith Ave., and Saturday addressed the convention of the California Democratic Council at Anaheim.

He made it clear he will not vote for President Johnson in his expected re-election campaign.

"A change is absolutely necessary," King said. "We must end the war in Vietnam. President Johnson is too emotionally involved and face-saving is more important to him than peace."

He declined to make a choice between other Democratic candidates, Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy.

☐ Being Investigated

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has called on the California Democratic Council to support the upcoming March on Washington by poor people to dramatize the evils of poverty, develop a "cosmic divine discontent" to better America, and work for justice for all men.

Speaking at the Saturday luncheon of the CDC convention in Anaheim, Dr. King told the story of "The Other America," where things aren't beautiful.

"In one America, people possess the necessities of life, the milk of necessity and the honey of opportunity. There is culture and education for the mind, freedom and dignity for the spirit. The young grow in the sunlight of opportunity."

But in the other America, "a daily despondence changes the brilliance of hope into the dullness of despair. Millions of people are forced to live in dilapidated, substandard homes. Wall to wall rats and roaches are more likely than wall to wall carpets."

The young "finish high school reading at the 8th grade level. The schools are so segregated" that they are devoid of quality.

"Forty million persons perish on an isle of poverty in the midst of an ocean of prosperity. The Negro finds himself in the midst of a major depression."

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING

"Mass unemployment in a white area is called a depression. Mass unemployment in a Negro area is called a social problem."

This is bad, but Dr. King cited "underemployment as just as great or greater. Wages are so inadequate that people can't function in the economic mainstream. They work full-time jobs for part-time incomes.

"There is a great deal of bitterness, despair, and anger among the people in the other America. It's expressed itself in the violent explosions of the last few summers that we've seen our cities burning.

"We must find the casual bases for this. I am committed to non-violence, and I still believe that it is the most potent weapon in the fight for justice."

And challenging the liberal of the Democratic Party in California, he called on "people of good will and concern to stand up and criticize the horrible conditions which exist in our society.

"Riot is the language of the unheard, which America fails to hear. The problems of the poor have worsened. White society is more concerned with tranquility and the status quo" than with the furtherance of Democratic ideals.

"Hot summers are preceded by cold winters. Society hasn't used its winters creatively. Hot summers are caused by winters of delay. Something must be done to solve the problems which face us."

"We now demand that people do the right thing for the right reason. Now is the time for gonidas equality to come into being for all of God's children."

Dr. King retold the tale of southern progress.

"Direct action was a powerful weapon throughout the South. It was shown in movement after movement, assault after assault.

"As in Selma, we coped with the whole political issue and denial of the vote. There were legislative victories, such as the voter rights bill.

"What we didn't do was rid the nation of racism. We did little to penetrate the ghetto. We did little to improve the economic condition of the masses of Negroes.

"We won national support because we didn't cost the nation a thing. We wanted the right to vote and integrated lunch counters. People were against Bull Connors and Jim Clark. They took a stand for decency, not denying equality for the black man.

"It won't be as easy as it was before as we work to eradicate slums and guarantee income and create jobs. But this must be done if the crisis facing our nation is to be solved."

Everyone must be involved.

"We are not only concerned about the Negro and the Negro power. We are concerned about Mexican-Americans, Puerto Ricans, Indians, and our white brothers. We wish they would realize this and join in this movement to end poverty.

"We need a movement to dramatize the evil of poverty—massive and militant, but not destructive of life and property.

"This is the problem with a riot. It can be stopped with superior force.

"Ours is not going to be a one day March on Washington. It is going to be a stay-in. We're going to stay until we get a response from Congress. And if there is none when it adjourns, we'll move on to Chicago."

Then Dr. King called on CDC for the type support it gave the Freedom Riders and southern summer activities of the past.

"We need your support as we dramatize this effort. We have recruited 3,000 poor people to go to Washington in the beginning. But on June 15, we want everyone's support.

Dr. King stated we must call for de-escalation of the Vietnam War and escalation of the War on Poverty.

"Vietnam has made the War on Poverty a myth... it's strengthened domestic reaction." Through the "weapon of superior patriotism," the war had led to the "use of national frustration to restore the America of social insecurity and power for the privileged."

The priorities fostered by the war are "shameful... the decay and squalor and pollution of the cities has been neglected. The war has so increased urban frustrations that riots are now part of the American scene."

PURSUIT OF WAR

The Vietnam War and the War on Poverty? Dr. King stated our nation will "never voluntarily fight both. The majority of Congress is devoted singlemindedly edly to the pursuit of the war. It allocates $53 to each poor American in War on Poverty funds. It spends $5,000 to kill each Vietnamese communist. The government is emotionally committed to the war. It is hostile to the poor.

"It is time for people of good will to make it clear that when guns take priority over butter, you don't even get good oleomargarine."

Dr. King called the front lines of Vietnam "a tragedy."

And at home, "young people are torn with confusion. There are extremes in conduct. There have been no economic crises in their lifetimes. But four wars in 25 years--World War II, Korea, the Cold War, and Vietnam--have left their scars" in the use of drugs, alienation, and materialistic pursuits.

Our nation lives in an isolated, alienated atmosphere, said Dr. King.

"The government is isolated from the people."

"The government is isolated in the world. We are without the aid of a single significant international power. We are more lonely now than when this republic was founded."

"We are isolated from the Vietnamese. Less than one third of the vote in the recent Vietnamese elections went to pro-war delegates. The Vietnamese Army is so reduced in its role that it may become the first pacifist army in the world."

In response to those who are critical of his stand on the Vietnam War, citing it as damaging to the civil rights movement, Dr. King stated, "I have worked too long to end public segregation to segregate my moral concerns. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

GENUINE LEADER

"A genuine leader isn't a searcher for consensus,

"There comes a time when a person must take a

"There comes a time when a person must take a stand because his conscience tells him it is right.

"Let each develop the cosmic divine discontent to keep us standing for a great America . . . where we can live as brothers and recognize the dignity of each person's personality."

Dr. Martin King To Lead PP's Campaign

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 17—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), is on a nationwide tour to meet poor people, expose the plight of the poor in city slums and rural communities, and call for support and participation in the massive Poor People's Campaign in Washington, D.C. this spring.

From California, where he met with black community representatives in Los Angeles and migrant farm leader Cesar Chavez in Delano this weekend, he goes to Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia this week.

Rev. King spoke at 2nd Baptist Church Sunday, March 17.

On his tour during the next four weeks, Dr. King will meet with poor families in their rural shanties and slum tenements, walk the streets of America's ghettos, visit disadvantaged school children, and speak at mass rallies where poor people will present their grievances in hearings. The purpose is to arouse the nation to face up to poverty and racism and to motivate people to join the Campaign for decent jobs and income and the right to a decent life, starting April 22 in Washington.

From April 22 on, protests in Washington will build in intensity and numbers until the federal government responds to the demands of Poor People. After Dr. King and about 100 other poor people's leaders present demands to government officials, columns of the poor will begin moving toward Washington from the North, South and Midwest, converging on their nation's capital with a determination to stay. The poor people will invite all Americans, rich and poor, black and white, to support and participate, and a massive March on Washington will be announced soon.

On the Poor People's Tour this week, Dr. King will be accompanied by Dr. Ralph D. Abernathy, SCLC Vice President and Treasurer; Hosea

Williams, National Field Mobilizing Director of the Campaign, and other staff members.
