STEVEN THOME, 355 West Acacia, Glendale, son of HAROLD JAMES THOME, was telephonically contacted to determine the whereabouts of his father, who had attempted to have an audience with MARTIN LUTHER KING in Atlanta, Georgia, in November, 1967, for an unknown reason. He stated his father left Los Angeles, California, sometime in late 1967 and his whereabouts have been unknown since that time. He stated his father had called him long distance collect on two occasions since Christmas, 1967. However, he did not know the origin of the calls and would advise this office when he received his telephone bill indicating the charges. THOME stated his father was alienated from his son, TIM THOME, and from his former wife, and would not contact either of them. He refused to furnish the current address or telephone number of his mother, stating she knew nothing concerning HAROLD THOME's whereabouts and he did not want her to be interviewed. THOME suggested contacting the Barnett Buick Company who had sold his father a 1966 Buick, as he knew they were looking for his father.

THOME stated he was positive his father would not be implicated in the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING, as he was very sympathetic to the cause of the Negro people.

Probation Officer's Comments

"Although one of the lesser lights in this particular transaction, apparently is more deeply involved in the narcotics traffice than he cares to admit...A review of the background reflects considerable irresponsible conduct, with lack of insight as to the seriousness of his behavior. The probation officer has the feeling that defendant actually knew full well what he was doing, no doubt having engaged in similar activities in the past. As a result of all this and the magnitude of the particular situation, it is not believed that he is deserving of a great deal of consideration. It is recommended that probation be denied."

This report was signed by DANIEL E. BOYD, Deputy Probation Officer, Foothill area.

Co-Defendant MURRAY PETER MAKALII

This record indicated that co-defendant MURRAY PETER MAKALII, was a male prostitute, born [redacted] in Honolulu, Hawaii. The record indicated he had supported himself since 1965, "hustling as a male prostitute, and female impersonator." During the period from March 10, 1960 and December 6, 1966, he had 37 known arrests in California, after coming to this state from Hawaii. He has used the aliases SABRINA DEBRA VAKALI, DONNA MAKALII, LAKALII MURRAY, FRANCIS VANN, etc.

Co-Defendant KENNETH G. BODE

The file contained a personal letter postmarked November 15, 1967, to Judge RICHARD F. C. HAYDEN, Hall of Justice, Los Angeles, California, from KENNETH G. BODE, age 27, 2384½ Loma Vista Place, Los Angeles; noting his attorney to be WILLIAM H. HALL, and his probation officer, H.F. KISSANE. He claimed this arrest to have been his first offense. He also claimed he had been employed on the same job continuously since June 1965, "with a proud work record." He indicated he planed to enter the field of marine technology and photography having started the preliminaries to entering the Los Angeles Underwater Instructors School (County Lifesaving Course). He claimed he had changed his friends and surroundings. The record indicates he was placed on probation for ten years; and fined $1,500.00.

JOHN HOWARD, co-manager of the premises at 923 South Irolo Street, Los Angeles, California, telephone 382-3493, advised that he has served in this capacity since January 22, 1968.

HOWARD advised that he has no knowledge of any person with the name of ERIC STARVO GALT or any person named ERIC GALT or ERIC GAULT, except for what he had read in the newspapers. He said that no person so-named was presently a tenant at that address, nor had he been to his (HOWARD's) knowledge. HOWARD checked available records which went back to October, 1967, but found no record of pertinence.

HOWARD said he had not seen any mail coming to this address for persons with the above mentioned names, or for any-one named GALT or GAULT.

When a description of GALT was given to HOWARD, he said that this brought to mind only one person. He related the circumstances of meeting this person as follows:

Last Saturday, April 20, 1968, HOWARD went to the restaurant named ZAMBOANG, 3331 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, going there about 1:00 A.M. This restaurant is located on the northwest corner of Eighth Street and Irolo Street. This restaurant is run by a person named PETE; possibly of Phillipine origin. HOWARD was alone when he went to the restaurant. There was a U-shaped counter and HOWARD sat opposite two men. They said they were waiting for the bar to open and were drinking coffee. HOWARD left the restaurant about 5:00 A.M. that morning and the two men were still there. HOWARD said he had not seen them previously nor since. HOWARD said he did not know the names, addresses or places of employment for these men.

Nearly all the talking was performed by one of the men, who, HOWARD said, resembled the description.

After a Negro left the restaurant, this man said in effect "God damn these niggers, they ought to kill them all." HOWARD asked this man how he felt about the KING assassination and the uprisings that then occurred and this man said "You ought to be in Alabama and then you would know how they felt." HOWARD asked him if he knew where the spot of assassination occurred and the man said he knew exactly as he had lived in Alabama all his life. HOWARD asked him what he was doing here and the man said that he was just bumming around. HOWARD asked him if he was going back to Alabama and he said he probably would in May. HOWARD described this man as follows:

Name	Unknown
Address	Unknown
Race	White
Age	About 25 - 30 years
Height	5'10½"
Weight	170-175 pounds
Eyes	Blue
Build	Medium
Complexion	Ruddy, with acne-like pits on face. Complexion rough on cheeks opposite mouth.
Hair	Brown, cut in flat top style. Hair appeared dry and HOWARD said that if grease were put on it, it would be darker. The hair on the sides was somewhat long and unruly, not being combed. That portion of his hair was rather "messy".
Tattoo	Had a tattoo on one arm.
Eyeglasses	None seen.
Clothing	He wore a short-sleeved sport shirt having a big check pattern. Wore no tie nor coat. His clothing was not neat and seemed rather dirty.

LA 44-1574

Miscellaneous He said he had been out here only a short time but was not more specific in this regard. HOWARD said he felt this man was a "typical dumb Southern hillbilly". He had a definite Southern accent.

HOWARD said that the other man who said very little did talk to the waitress. HOWARD said this man did not fit the description while describing him as follows:

Name and address	Unknown
Place of work	Unknown
Race	White
Age	About 25 years.
Height	Was not seen standing, but estimated at 5'6" or 7"
Weight	180 pounds
Hair	Had a lot of black hair, combed back and having a wave.
Build	Stocky
Complexion	Dark
Miscellaneous	This man was not heard to say where he was from.

HOWARD said he saw neither of these men with an automobile.

Also, in the restaurant there was an older man, in his 60's, of the white race. He had no teeth and talked to the man from Alabama. This older man said to him "Hell, I have known you for ten years and you haven't even said hello to me." The older man said he was from Alabama. The two of them were talking when HOWARD left the restaurant. HOWARD said he does not know the name, address or place of work of this older man.

HOWARD said that PETE, operator of the restaurant, was not seen at the restaurant that morning and that the waitress, name unknown, was believed to be recently hired, as he, HOWARD, had not seen her before.

GEORGE GREGORY MOCKBEE, age 18, born [redacted] [redacted], on Long Island, New York, was interviewed at his residence, Apartment 7, 11143 Bryant Street. Present during the interview was his mother, Mrs. BLANCHE PEREZ.

MOCKBEE related that earlier in May, 1968, he was visiting his aunt, Mrs. JOAN BRUNO, 3297 Ashford Street, Linda Vista, San Diego, California. About 11:00 p.m. on May 17, 1968, he left his aunt JOAN's residence accompanied by his cousin, TONY BRUNO, and his brother, BOB MOCKBEE, and his cousin TONY drove his 1965 Barracuda. TONY drove him to the home of Mrs. MARJORIE AUBERT, Tait Street, San Diego, where TONY's acquaintances, BECKY JOSEPH and STEPHEN AUBERT, children of MARJORIE AUBERT, reside. TONY then drove off with BOB MOCKBEE.

GEORGE MOCKBEE related that he was not feeling too well when he arrived at the AUBERT residence and almost immediately after his arrival there, he went outside of the residence and sat on the front steps. He states he was nauseated as a result of drinking a can of beer, and he became sick to his stomach.

GEORGE MOCKBEE states that about 20 minutes after he commenced sitting on the steps in front of the AUBERT residence, a San Diego police car drove up to the residence and two policemen came up onto the property. One of the policemen asked what was wrong, and MOCKBEE states he replied he did not know why they came but did state he was sick.

At about the same time as he had the above conversation with the policeman, TONY BRUNO returned in his car along with BOB MOCKBEE, age 15.

STEPHEN AUBERT was in the house and he came to the door and invited GEORGE MOCKBEE to enter. BOB MOCKBEE arrived at the front door and said, "Come in." GEORGE MOCKBEE states he does not know whether his brother said this to him or to the policemen who were outside of the door. GEORGE MOCKBEE states he walked into the house and was followed by the two policemen. GEORGE MOCKBEE noted that because he was not feeling well, he laid down on a couch in the living room.

One of the policemen, R. SIX, asked STEPHEN AUBERT where his parents were. The latter replied he did not have to answer. SIX then asked AUBERT what time his parents would be home, and AUBERT gave him the same answer as before. SIX asked possibly two or three other questions, not now recalled by MOCKBEE, and AUBERT told the policeman to get out of his house, that the policeman did not have a search warrant or words to this effect. SIX then said to STEPHEN AUBERT, "Let me ask you one more question?" MOCKBEE does not recall the question asked, but he remembers AUBERT said, "I can shoot you."

MOCKBEE states that one of the officers then grabbed AUBERT by the shoulders and lifted him up off of a chair. He does not recall which officer did this, but AUBERT squirmed out of the officer's hands and ran into the kitchen. He was followed by one of the officers, but MOCKBEE states he does not recall which one. MOCKBEE does not know what happened in the kitchen but recalls there was a lot of noise and it sounded like people were wrestling around in the kitchen. MOCKBEE pointed out that he could not see in the kitchen beyond the doorway.

GEORGE MOCKBEE states that TONY BRUNO ran into the kitchen, and he observed BRUNO jump on the back of one of the officers and grab the officer around the neck. The other officer ran into the kitchen and as he was just inside the doorway, MOCKBEE could see that TONY BRUNO shoved the second officer backwards.

MOCKBEE relates that he saw the second officer take his billy club in his hand and then the officer moved out of MOCKBEE's view in the kitchen. He did not see the officer hit BRUNO nor does he know that the officer hit BRUNO, but BRUNO staggered out of the kitchen, doubled over and fell on the floor in the living room. MOCKBEE next observed both policemen leading STEPHEN AUBERT out of the kitchen handcuffed, and they took him out to the police car. MOCKBEE continued that TONY BRUNO got up and ran out of the house and started shouting at the officers not to put AUBERT in the car.

MOCKBEE advises that at this point he got up from the couch and walked out of the house. One of the policemen came to the front of the house and asked MOCKBEE for his name, and the other officer went to handcuff TONY BRUNO who was still shouting on the front lawn, but what he was saying is not now recalled by MOCKBEE.

MOCKBEE recalls TONY BRUNO was resisting the officer by squirming and then one of the officers pinned one of BRUNO's arms behind his back, at which time the second officer then assisted in handcuffing him. He recalled that just before BRUNO was handcuffed and while his arm was pinned behind his back, BRUNO shouted, "I give, I give," meaning that he wanted to give in. BRUNO was then put into the police car.

MOCKBEE stated that at this point, Mrs. MARJORIE AUBERT drove up in her car. She was accompanied by her young daughter. She left her car and ran to the police car unaware at this time that her son was in the police car. He recalls she asked R. SIX what was going on, and he informed her that the police had a complaint of a disturbance or a disturbing of the peace or something like that.

MOCKBEE noted that during the approximate 20 minutes that he sat in front of the AUBERT residence prior to the arrival of the police there had been no disturbance in the AUBERT house.

He continued that when Mrs. AUBERT discovered her son, STEPHEN, was in the police car, she started forward to open the police car door saying, "I want my son," and Officer SIX said, "I'm sorry, he is in our custody." He heard Mrs. AUBERT ask why STEPHEN was under arrest, and SIX said that they were not under arrest. Thereupon Mrs. AUBERT asked his name, and when he replied SIX, she said she wanted his name not his badge number. There were several questions concerning name and/or badge number between Mrs. AUBERT and SIX, and finally officers got into the police car and drove off.

About 20 minutes later the police car came back and STEPHEN AUBERT left the car and walked to his house. The same two policemen were in the car and in another police car, a station wagon, a police sergeant, name not known, went into the kitchen where he had some conversation with Mrs. AUBERT. MOCKBEE did not hear the conversation except to hear Mrs. AUBERT state that she was going to call her lawyer. Whereupon one of the officers said for her to go ahead and call the lawyer. Thereafter the sergeant left as well as the two other policemen with TONY BRUNO still in the police car.

MOCKBEE advises that possibly an hour later, JOE AUBERT came to his home, and he then drove MOCKBEE to the BRUNO residence. Upon arrival there, MOCKBEE observed the two policemen, TONY BRUNO, Mrs. BRUNO, and Mrs. AUBERT in the BRUNO driveway. They were talking. He does not know what they were talking about because he went directly into the house and to bed.

GEORGE MOCKBEE advised that he did not desire to furnish this information in the form of a signed statement.

Miss DEBORAH JEAN RAY, also known as DEBBIE RAY, was interviewed at her apartment, 6633 Darby Avenue, Reseda, California. She stated she is 18 years of age, single, born in Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania. She has been in California for eight years. At the present time she is not employed, but is living off Los Angeles County Welfare. She has been employed in the past at Corbin Bowl, in Tarzana, California as a "Blue Chip stamp girl." She said she frequents bowling alleys, as her favorite hobby is watching bowling matches. She said she does not compete in bowling to any great extent, as she has some problems with her legs and feet as a result of polio she suffered as a child.

Miss RAY stated she has attended several schools throughout the metropolitan Los Angeles area, since coming to California eight years ago. The most recent school was Reseda High School, Reseda, California.

Although single, Miss RAY stated she is engaged to be married in the near future to Mr. DENNIS MARTIN RUCH. She stated she has never seen or met JAMES EARL RAY, and is not related to him. Several photographs of JAMES EARL RAY were included in a group of other photographs exhibited to Miss DEBORAH JEAN RAY, and she stated that none of the pictures shown her were of anyone she knows or recalls having seen.

Miss RAY was at a loss to understand how her name may have been included in the mailing list of the Wilshire Book Company; as she has absolutely no recollection of having ever ordered or purchased any books from that company. It was pointed out that one of the titles published by the Wilshire Book Company deals with bowling; and Miss RAY said that if that was the case, it is possible that someone at one of the bowling establishments she frequents may have submitted her name as a potential purchaser. As her bowling activity is largely limited to that of a spectator, Miss RAY has not had any occasion to purchase any of the Wilshire Book Company's books.

On approximately May 22, 1968, Mrs. DE LUCA was advised by Detective WOODRUM, Victorville, California, Police Department, that a man had attempted to cash a check on her account at the Security First National Bank, Victorville, but had left the bank when the manager went to make a phone call to check the account. WINTON attended the convention of National Society for Program Instruction at El Tropicano Hotel, San Antonio, Texas, from April 17 - 19, 1968. He said that in his work he meets many people and can note familiar faces. WINTON observed a man alone in a booth in the restaurant of the Ramada Inn just before midnight on Wednesday, April 17, 1968. WINTON said he faced the man who looked familiar. The man was there when WINTON arrived and was still there when WINTON left the restaurant. The man appeared to have been drinking but there was no disturbance.

WINTON again observed this man about 10:00 AM or later on April 19, 1968, in the same restaurant. The man was sitting at the counter and left shortly after WINTON left the restaurant. When leaving, WINTON went towards his room and saw this man across the pool on the balcony of another building of the Ramada Inn. He was judged to be at room No. 264 or those in the 250's or 260's when last observed. WINTON advised he has not seen this man since and cannot specifically recall seeing him previously to these two occasions.
