On 10/30/68, ALICIA GRAY, 920 E. Colonial Dr., Orlando, Fla., telephonically furnished the following information:

She stated she had just read an article in the Orlando Sentinel newspaper regarding a magazine story on JAMES EARL RAY. This article mentioned an individual named "RAUL," who met RAY in Canada during the time he was a fugitive. She stated the article mentioned RAY made a deal with RAUL to deliver a package to the United States and was to have been paid $12,000 by RAUL. The article described RAUL as a blond Latin who was a seaman.

GRAY stated she knew a man named RAUL in San Francisco in March or April, 1965. This individual was involved in some kind of racket, either in San Francisco, Cal., or Las Vegas, Nevada, which she believed to be extortion. She became involved with him while working as a hostess in the Chase Lounge on Ellis and Larkin Streets, in San Francisco. One night, when RAUL became intoxicated, and after flashing a large amount of money, accused her of stealing $100 from him.

As a result of this incident, RAUL embarked on a campaign to harass her. As a result of this, she had been arrested and was told at a later date by an unrecalled person that RAUL had been deported to England. She is now certain RAUL is the same person mentioned in the RAY article.

During this interview, ALICIA GRAY could not give specific answers to questions and became very evasive when questions were asked. She admitted she had suffered a nervous breakdown while living in California and was hesitant in identifying herself, stating she "did not want to get involved."

Enclosed for the Bureau are the original and one copy of a newspaper clipping reflecting the fact Judge W. PRESTON BATTLE conferred 12/11/68 with subject's lawyer, PERCY FOREMAN, and agreed to postpone until 12/18/68 a "hearing" to determine the date of RAY's trial.

Mr. JAMES BEASLEY, Assistant Attorney General and one of the prosecutors in this case, advised SA JOE C. HESTER 12/12/68 that his office had expected FOREMAN to appear before Judge BATTLE on 12/12/68 as previously scheduled and that neither FOREMAN nor BATTLE notified the Attorney General's Office of their meeting until some hours after the meeting had taken place. It was FOREMAN who advised the press of the postponement.

Mr. BEASLEY explained that what has been described in the press as a hearing is not actually a hearing and is nothing more than a "progress report" which FOREMAN is to make to Judge BATTLE to advise BATTLE what progress FOREMAN is making in locating and interviewing witnesses in this case.

Mr. BEASLEY was most apologetic for not having given this Office earlier notice of the meeting between FOREMAN and Judge BATTLE, but explained that he was unable to do so as he had not learned of the meeting until many hours after it had concluded.

Files of the San Francisco Office did not contain any information identifiable with "PAUL" (per Tampa letter) or "RAOUL" (per "Look" articles).

The records of the San Francisco Police Department, Bureau of Identification, were reviewed on December 16, 1968, by SE GERALD E. ROSS and no arrest record was located in the name "ALICIA GRAY."

He advised the name "ALICIA GRAY" meant nothing to him. He advised he could not recall a hostess by that name and stated if she had ever worked for him, it should show up in his business records.

He advised he did not know anyone by the name "RAUL" or "RAOUL" and stated he knew of no patron who might have been deported.

CHASE stated STAN TOTARO was his accountant.

STAN TOTARO, Accountant, 1372 Ninth Avenue, San Francisco, California, telephone number 661-7969, advised on December 17, 1968, he would check CHASE's records for "ALICIA GRAY."

On December 18, 1968, TOTARO advised one ALICIA GRAY was employed by CHASE from February 1, 1966, to March 15, 1966, as a waitress. TOTARO stated ALICIA GRAY's Social Security Number was reported as [redacted] and her local residence as 684 Ellis Street, Apartment 522, San Francisco, California.

DELBERT W. CHASE on December 18, 1968, advised he still could not recall any employee named ALICIA GRAY and further advised he knew no one named "RAUL" or "RAOUL."

It is being left to the discretion of the Memphis Office to decide the desirability of a further interview of ALICIA GRAY to determine if she possesses any additional information regarding "RAUL" or "RAOUL" which could lead to his identification.

Re Tampa letter to the Bureau, 12/3/68 reflecting an interview with ALICIA GRAY of Orlando, Florida, who claims to have known man named RAUL, not otherwise identified, during 1965 at San Francisco, California.

Reference is also made to San Francisco airtel to the Bureau, 12/18/68 wherein they state that ALICIA GRAY was employed at Chase's Lounge, San Francisco, during 1966, as a waitress.

In view of the fact that ALICIA GRAY has admitted suffering a nervous breakdown and since there is absolutely no reason to believe that the man with whom she was associated in California in 1965 is identical with the RAUL, who RAY claims to have associated with, it is believed that any additional investigation would be a complete waste of effort and without any hope of profit. Accordingly, Memphis recommends no further action on ALICIA GRAY's story.
