17 contact sheets containing approximately 390 photographs

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Gore Vice Presidential records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22, as amended) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552, as amended) and therefore may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Records in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States Government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of the Albert Gore, Jr. vice presidency are in the custody of the Presidential Materials Division in Washington, DC and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, February 2015. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

Vice President Al Gore appeared on several daytime and late-night television talk shows throughout the Clinton Administration. This body of records consists of photographs taken backstage and during the taping of "The Phil Donahue Show" and "Late Show with David Letterman" on September 8, 1993 and "The Oprah Winfrey Show" on September 11, 2000. Notable celebrities and well-known individuals in these images include Phil Donahue, comedian Rob Schneider, David Letterman, musician Paul Shaffer, Academy Award-winning actress Kim Basinger, Oprah Winfrey, hairstylist Andre Walker, and Harpo Studios executive vice president Andrea Wishom.

These photographs were taken by White House photographer Callie Shell.

System of Arrangement

These records are part of the Vice Presidential records collection of the White House Photograph Office.

The White House Photograph Office assigned each roll of 35 mm film a unique roll number. The roll numbers for the Vice Presidential photographs begin with "V" in order to distinguish them from the Presidential photographs taken by White House photographers during the administration. The office created a contact sheet for each roll of film and organized them in binders by film type (color or black and white) and roll number. The contact sheets are arranged by binder book number, and thereunder, by roll number. The Photograph Office left gaps in the roll numbers for unexplained reasons.

Archival processing is done at the contact sheet level.
