

Longines Chronoscope with Rep. Frederic R. Coudert, 02/08/1952

Announcer 1: The world's most honored watch is Longines. Longines watches have won ten World's Fair Grand Prizes, 28 gold medals, and more honors for accuracy than any other timepiece. Longines, the world's most honored watch, is made and guaranteed by the Longines-Wittnauer Watch Company.

Announcer 2: It's time for the Longines Chronoscope, a television journal of the important issues of the hour. Brought to you every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. A presentation of the Longines-Wittnauer Watch Company, maker of Longines, the world's most honored watch, and Wittnauer, distinguished companion to the world honored Longines.

Frank Knight: Good evening, this is Frank Knight. May I introduce our coeditors for this edition of the Longines Chronoscope: Colonel Ansel Talbert, an editor of the New York Herald Tribune and Mr. William Bradford Huie, editor of the American Mercury. Our distinguished guest for this evening is the honorable Frederick R. Coudert, Jr., a United States Representative from New York. The opinions expressed are necessarily those of the speaker's.

Mr. William Bradford Huie: Mr. Coudert, our Chronoscope audience, many of them, remember that you inspired the investigation of Communist activity in the New York schools recently, and particularly they know you now as a fighting member of the House Appropriations Committee who is trying to do something about what you think is excessive government spending. They're familiar with this rather sensational [...]
