dearest. he got up yesterday & I've been hoping you Long Island retreat is not quite as hot as it is here! I don't mind for some change & also hot & sunny & low suffer. he had to sleep at once yesterday p. m. but I swam & lay in the sun for an hour. now shopping this morning.

LA [a visit]

A visit from Tom (Cotton about those poor buckyard negroes who are not well settled yet. The Feyer-weathers (Wife & 2 children) came to Loring & Max & stayed till 4.
Wife Welloney came to Max & he talked about her frame for a half hour afterwards. I dislike her. She has so much phlegm - I went riding from 5-7. Went to a Loring & Welloney & I had supper on my porch. He & she worked all evening & I haven't yet done many personal letters which need to be done!

I was sorry to hear today that Brooklyn Thompson has had quite a severe operation - I begin to think it looks pretty hopeless for Amelia & I am sorry -

I do hope things are not too painful at the office, it's hard

[Don't you]

Mr. Jm but there may be some compromise there. Don't you get a taste?

There is much love & sympathy.
