My dear Mr. Mantz:

I have made inquiries about the search which was made for Amelia Earhart and both the President and I are satisfied from the information which we have received that everything possible was done. We are sure that a very thorough search was made.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Morgenthau says that he can't give out any more information than was given to the papers at the time of the search of Amelia Earhart

It seems they have confidential information which would completely ruin the reputation of Amelia and which he will tell you personally some time when you wish to hear it.

He suggests writing this man and telling him that the President is satisfied from his information, and you are too, that everything possible was done.

Dear Henry:

William
A little while ago Floyd ~~Gidman~~ and his wife, Jacqueline Cochran, were at the White House when she received the Harmon Trophy for aviation. She told me they all felt that not enough search had been made amongst certain islands where Amelia Earhart might be. I told her to send me a memo on the Islands and the reasons why they felt this, and I would transmit it to you and to the Navy Department at once. Now comes this letter which is evidently inspired by Miss Cochran. I do not know whether you can send the man these records, but, in any case, I am sending you the letter and let me know whatever your decision may be.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

The writer acted as technical advisor to Miss Earhart and made the flight with her to Honolulu which was climaxed by her accident on the take-off.

I received a letter from Miss Jacqueline Cochran the other day requesting that I answer a great many questions regarding my opinion and actual messages that were received and tied together with the times in relation to the take-off.

I have often wanted to make up a complete report in detail on this situation in order to determine whether or not a search would be practical, even at this late date. In order to do so would like to have a copy of the official report of the "Itasca" which is on file at the Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington. I saw this report in San Francisco at the time Miss Earhart was first reported missing but made no notes and if you could arrange to have a copy sent to me I would in turn furnish you a detailed report and theories for your own personal use - but not for publication.

I have attempted to draw up this information ever since last August but just this morning I was advised by Mr. F. K. Johnson of the U.S. Coast Guard, San Francisco, that the official report was on file in Washington and could not be released except through certain channels.

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt

I feel that all of us who were so close to Miss Earhart should at least make a certain amount of effort along the lines I know she would follow if the situation were reversed.

Would deeply appreciate it if you could have the above information forwarded and in turn you will receive a report which I am sure will answer any question of doubt that may be in your mind.

Yours very truly,
UNITED AIR SERVICES, LTD.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I want you to know that I have not forgotten our discussion about Amelia Earhart and I have done a considerable amount of work. But it seems so difficult to get any accurate data now and guess work or assumptions would be worse than useless.

Within the coming three weeks I will be in Los Angeles where some data needed can be obtained and some more I believe is now lodged in the files of the Department of Commerce where I will try and obtain it.

Later I will communicate with you again.

It was so kind of you to have us at the White House for presentation of the Harman Trophy and for luncheon. The occasion will remain one of the outstanding experiences of my life.

Sincerely,

Raqueline Cochran

Your letter of March 16th, has just reached me, having been forwarded from the hotel in Los Angeles.

I am more than sorry it did not reach me in time, for I would have made every effort to go to see you. I quite understand your feeling of wanting to have the Islands searched and I had no idea that any group of private individuals were planning to do so. I felt that the government had made as thorough a search as was possible.

I hope that whatever will make you feel happier can be done. I have great affection for Amelia, she is a grand person and should never be forgotten.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Amelia has just left for the Pacific coast to superintend final work on her "flying laboratory", now nearing completion.

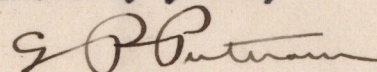

On her behalf I am venturing this letter to avail ourselves of the help which you kindly offered when we last saw you.

Our wish is to be put in touch with the proper person in the State Department whose aid can be enlisted in connection with A.E.'s proposed world flight. We want appropriate guidance in securing the required permissions, etc.

It would be helpful to get the preliminaries under way now while I am temporarily in the east. If the hoped-for contact is in order, we'll be tremendously grateful for your help. I will, of course, report to the designated office in Washington at its convenience.

Incidentally, do please emphasize that the project is for the present confidential. As you know, A.E. likes to avoid advance discussion of flights -- their realization depends upon so many factors.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Maloney Before me is a pleasant note from
"Missy" saying recently she talked to you about Amelia's flight. Her letter contains this paragraph:

" She said she loved Amelia and she would be happy to do anything in the world she could for her. She added that she would be delighted to personally take up any problem with Naval Operations, or any other Government group, and suggested that I have you or Amelia write her and tell her exactly how she could help."

Thank you so very much. I am venturing this note just to let you know that everything is in splendid shape. The Navy has been most cordial and helpful in its cooperation.
Indeed, so have all the Departments. Incidentally, the President was kind enough to make possible the construction of an emergency landing field on a tiny pin-point of an island called Howland, just north of the Equator, half way between Honduras and Australia.
If all goes well, Amelia will be the first to use it.
The expedition to build the airport there is now en route. That one feature of the flight is quite an adventure in itself.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

I have wanted for some time to write and tell you how much I enjoyed the articles about Amelia in Liberty. I hope they are to be in book form, as I missed one or two of them.

I think you have done this very beautifully, and I am a harsh critic, for I would consider only the best adequate for her.

Publisher of Hitler ^{L.A. News} Book Warned ^{Apr 20}

A letter threatening George Palmer Putnam, widower of Amelia Earhart Putnam, aviatrix, and warning him to stop publication of his book "The Man Who Killed Hitler," yesterday was turned over to John Klein, chief of the district attorney's bureau of investigation.

Putnam, accompanied by counsel, said he received the letter yesterday by special delivery and said it was written in German script. He had it translated by A. F. Z. Landi, 9125 Sunset boulevard, a personal friend.

The letter translated said:

"In a very short time German will be the world's language. I therefore do not give myself the trouble of writing to you in English. You are hereby warned to stop the publication of your book, 'The Man Who Killed Hitler.' If you have any regard for your own future safety, stop publication of this book at once.

"The arm of greater Germany reaches far and we have no desire to continue warning you. If you are wise, you will do what we tell you, because something can happen to you and your future may be extinguished. Because the great work of the fuehrer cannot be stopped by enemies. Heil Hitler. (Signed) Greater Germany."

Klein ordered an investigation.

From New York I am having mailed to you a copy of the little book, "The Man Who Killed Hitler," which is the first of my California-produced publications. Because of its genuine interest as an unusual piece of writing, I feel sure you will enjoy reading it. It is, of course, fiction, and pretends to be nothing else.

And I think, too, that you will comprehend my feelings this morning, resulting from the attempts to scare me out of the publishing of this book. The attached clipping is characteristic of those anent this effort at intimidation. I am glad that we still retain rights of free speech--and free publishing!

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Thanks so much for your thoughtful note of the 24th. I am delighted that you enjoyed the articles about AE in Liberty. The book will be published by Harcourt-Brace in late August. I think you will find it considerably more interesting than the articles, as the Liberty material was compressed into some 40,000 words--less than half the length of the book.

LOOKS OVER SINISTER WARNING

George Palmer Putnam inspects bullet-pierced copy of Hitler book and threat note received yesterday.

Putnam Gets Further Death Threats Over Book on Hitler

Further threats in the form of a bullet-riddled copy of his book, "The Man Who Killed Hitler," and a crudely pasted note were received yesterday by George Palmer Putnam, Hollywood publisher and husband of the late Amelia Earhart.

This is the third of a series of messages received since the publication of the book last week, according to Putnam, who reported the matter and turned the book and note over to Chief Investigator John A. Klein of the District Attorney's office.

Eight bullet holes mangled the small book, leaving small holes in the front cover, but tearing the back one as they came out.

TEXT OF LETTER

The letter was made of words apparently cut from newspapers and magazines and pasted on a sheet of white paper. It read as follows:

Mr. Putnam
You're a criminal. You failed to read future Bullet wound would be fatal to YOU!

if you don't abandon the book
THE MAN WHO KILLED HITLER

Take no chances of a bloody killing if you want to live
Your opportunity awaits you

Take it or leave it
Germany defies the World!
Los Angeles Nazis hell!

The letter was postmarked Los Angeles, April 22, at 9 a.m.

and was sent, together with the bullet-pierced copy of the book, special delivery, to the publisher, arriving at his North Hollywood home shortly before noon.

HE'S JUST CURIOUS

"I am not frightened," he said yesterday afternoon. "But I am curious. Very few people carry out threats of this type. However, I am not going to be at home for a few days. It seems wiser."

An anonymous telephone call a week ago, he said, started the series of threats. Last Wednesday a letter threatening his life, written in German, was received by Putnam and turned over to the District Attorney's office.

All threats, as well as the book, are anonymous. Putnam's is the only name connected with "The Man Who Killed Hitler."

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

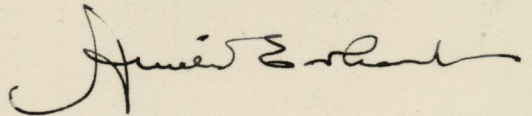

I just have received a clipping from Thursday's Star, with the story about your interest in flying. The article contains this line: "Amelia Earhart, and some of the First Lady's flying friends, have been circulating reports recently that Mrs. Roosevelt plans to learn to fly".

The wording troubles me a little. I hope you know that I do not "circulate reports". No one but Mr. Putnam and Dr. Smith knows through me of our conversations anent the possibility of your learning to fly. Your examination certificate lies buried in my personal files.

If the time does come when you wish to take instruction, I shall be glad to help you in any way I can. In the meantime Gene Vidal seems to be urging the industry to new efforts by proposing quantity production of a little plane. Perhaps one will be ready for your first solo!
