JLL 2 6 1966

Pors. Earhart, Amelia 1454us/ Sapar-1454 Dagar/US.

APPROVED FOR RELEASE - DISAPPEARANCE OF AMELIA EARHART 2025 REVIEW

California Newspaper Says Aviator Worked For U.S.

Napa, Cal., July 25 (4)—The tive by the Japanese in 1937 and Napa Register said today that that they had identified photo-Amelia Earhart, the long-missing graphs of Miss Earhart. aviatrix, was on a spying mission for the United States Government when she vanished in July, 1937 and subsequently died as a Japa-Shoda San Nicholas, was quoted Texas—had told of digging up a nese captive on the Pacific island as saying:

and that Frederick J. Noonan, her "When she first came she was the officer replied "Have you ever Japanese a few days later.

Miss Earhart was on an intelli-language. gence mission or that she was captured by the Japanese.

Recovered From Grave

appeared near the end of a flight officer said she had died." around the world, were recovered that Miss Earhart and Noonan galors: were engaged in espionage was the woman the Japanese based on a search of "classified called the flier died of dysentery. files in the Department of the She could not be helped. The man Navy and Department of State." He added:

concerned about Japanese fortification of the Pacific islands placed under Japan's control, by the League of Nations. If Miss Earhart could observe-and possibly photograph - some of these is lands, valuable information could be compiled.'

Miss Earhart was 38 and Noonan 44 at the time of their disappearance.

Probe Launched In 1960

The Register said the investigation which it joined three years ago, was launched in 1960 by Frederick Goerner, a newsman of radio station KCBS in San Francisco.

"Literally hundreds of persons him with a samural sword." have been interviewed," the story said. "Classified Federal files have been examined. Now, for the first islands as an industrial develop-for Amelia Earhart," is being published next month.

The Register story said "scores of natives" had been found on Saipan who remembered a white man and woman being held cap-

"Looked Vrey Sad"

One native, Maria Arriola

In a copyright story summing times. My father's house was not, and finding remains of two bodies, up a long investigation of the mystery, the newspaper said Miss her walk about a little bit, but not lated that he asked the officer Earhart succumbed to dysentery outside the yard.

"What are we looking for?" and and that Frederick I Negror between the succumber to the succession of the most succession of the mystery of the succession of the myster in 1944. The succession of the myster in 1944 is a succession of the myster in 1944. The succession of the myster in 1944 is a succession of the myster in 1944. The succession of the myster in 1944 is a succession of the myster in 1944 is a succession of the myster in 1944. The succession of the myster in 1944 is a succession of the myster navigator, was be headed by the wearing clothing like a man, but heard of Amelia Earhart?" the Japanese later gave her a In Washington, a spokesman for robe to wear. She always looked left Lac, New Guinea, on a schedthe State Department said its files very sad. She never spoke to any uled flight leg to thy Howland the State Department said its hies very said, one hever spoke to his sland on the day they disapshowed no evidence either that one. I do not think she knew the island on the day they disappeared. From Howland they ficer came to see my father, a The Register declared that the half of the woman. The awaiting their arrival at Howland, remains of the two fliers, who displicer said she had died."

Died Of Dysentery

from a grave on Saipan in 1949 Another witness, identified only and secretly returned to America, as the daughter of a Saipan doc-The Register said its conclusion for, was quoted as telling investi-who came to the island with her was executed several days after "United States officials were her death. The Japanese beheaded

In Tokyo, Fuminiko Nakajima, who lived in Saipan and adjoining time, the full story is being told." ment technician from May, 1935. A book of Goerner, "The Search to January, 1946, said he had never heard of any such incidents.

"It is quite unthinkable that Miss Earhart and her navigator, were captured by Japanese military forces in Saipan," Nakajima! commented. "There weren't any; soldiers on the island in 1937."

Two Former Marines

The Register said two former United States marines—Everett Henson, Jr., of Sacramento, Cal., and Billy Burks, now living in grave on Salpan under supervi-"I saw the white woman many sion of a marine officer in 1944

Miss Earhart and Noonan hed "Then I didn't see her for quite planned to fly on to Honolulu and a while. One day a Japanese of then to Oakland, Cal.

Wide Ranging Search

reported the last message heard from the twin-engined plane was a radio call by Miss Earhart saying:

"Gas is running low ... been unable to reach you by radio . . . we are circling but cannot see you."

search wide-ranging United States Navy ships and planes, assisted by Japanese vessels, turned up no trace of the