YOUR INVITED GUESTS

Hunter and Kathleen Biden

Mr. David Bohnett, Chair, The David Bohnett Foundation

Bohnett is a philanthropist and technology entrepreneur committed to effecting positive change through community building and social activism. In addition to serving as Chair of the David Bohnett Foundation, he is Chairman of the Board of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association and Trustee of amfAR (The Foundation for AIDS Research) and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA). Since 1999, the David Bohnett Foundation has provided funding, state-of-the-art technology and technical support to hundreds of innovative organizations and institutions. David Bohnett's many awards and distinctions include Los Angeles Business Journal's Technology Leader of the Year, Time Digital's Top 50 Cyber Elite, and Entrepreneur of the Year for Southern California. Mr. Bohnett maintains residences in Los Angeles and New York City.

Deborah Borda, President and CEO, Los Angeles Philharmonic Association

Borda heads one of the largest music organizations in the United States. She is responsible for the artistic, administrative, and technical operations of the Philharmonic at Walt Disney Concert Hall and the Hollywood Bowl, as well as the presentation of close to 300 concerts annually at these iconic venues. Borda has created groundbreaking educational programs and school partnerships, forging strong bonds with the greater Los Angeles community by making music more accessible to new generations of concertgoers. Following graduate studies at the Royal College of Music in London, she enjoyed an active performing career. She has chaired the Music Panel of both the National Endowment for the Arts and the Major American Orchestra Managers Group. Borda has also been featured in numerous national publications and television news programs.

Gerrett Copeland, Proprietor and Chairman, Bouchaine Vineyards
Longtime friends of yours and Dr. Biden, Copeland and his wife Tatiana, own the oldest winery in the Carneros region, Château Bouchaine. Prior to his involvement with Bouchaine winery, Gerret developed a successful New York Stock Exchange brokerage firm which he sold to Dean Witter. He resides in Wilmington, Delaware, where he is very involved with environmental causes. He helped establish The Brandywine Conservancy and its Environmental Management Center in Pennsylvania, which protects the Brandywine River Valley from pollution and over-development. For 10 years, as director of the Environmental Management Center, he assisted in preserving thousands of acres of open land in Pennsylvania and Delaware. Gerret currently serves as Chairman of the Delaware Art Museum. His father, Lammot du Pont Copeland, was the 11th president of the DuPont Company.

Tatiana Copeland, Owner and President, Tebec Associates Limited
Copeland is the owner and president of Tebec Associates Limited, a firm which specializes in financial and tax planning, and is the owner and president of The Wine & Spirit Company, co-owner and president of Bouchaine Vineyards, Inc., and co-owner and vice president of Rokeby Realty Company. She was previously employed as a manager in the International Department of E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co. in Wilmington. Mrs. Copeland and her husband were honored in 2005 as the largest individual donors to the Delaware Art Museum's capital campaign. The great-niece of renowned Russian composer Sergei Rachmaninoff, Mrs. Copeland is well known for her support of the musical arts in Delaware. She earned a B.S. in Accounting from the University of California at Los Angeles, graduating summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, and an M.B.A. from the University of California at Berkeley. She speaks several languages fluently, including Russian, French, German, Italian, and Spanish. Mrs. Copeland was knighted in 1991 by The Grand Duke Vladimir of Russia with The Order of St. Michael the Archangel.

Dr. Amy Gutmann, President, University of Pennsylvania

Gutmann also serves as Browne Distinguished Professor of Political Science in the School of Arts and Sciences at Penn with secondary faculty appointments in Philosophy, the Annenberg School for Communication, and the Graduate School of Education. Appointed in 2009 by President Barack Obama, Gutmann chairs the Presidential Commission for the Study of Bioethical Issues. She also serves on the National Commission on the Humanities and Social Sciences, and on the Boards of the National Constitution Center, the Carnegie Corporation, and the Vanguard Group. Gutmann is a founding member of the Global Colloquium of the University Presidents, which advises the Secretary General of the U.N. on a range of issues, including the social responsibility of universities. Prior to her appointment as Penn's President, Gutmann served as Provost at Princeton University. She earned her master's degree in Political Science from the London School of Economics and her doctorate in Political Science from Harvard University. She is married to Michael W. Doyle, the Harold Brown Professor of Law and International Affairs at Columbia University. Their daughter, Abigail Gutmann Doyle, is an Assistant Professor of Chemistry at Princeton University.

Dr. Michael W. Doyle, Harold Brown Professor of International Affairs, Law and Political Science at Columbia University

Doyle studied at the U.S. Air Force Academy for two years (and also qualified as a parachutist at Fort Benning) before transferring to Harvard University, where he earned his A.B., M.A. and Ph.D. (in Political Science in 1977). He completed his military service in the Massachusetts Air National Guard. He directed the Center of International Studies at Princeton University and chaired the Editorial Board and the Committee of Editors of World Politics. He was the vice-president and senior fellow of the International Peace Academy and is now a member of its board of directors. He has also served as a member of the External Research Advisory Committee of the UNHCR and the Advisory Committee of the Lessons-Learned Unit of the Department of Peace-Keeping Operations (UN). In 2001-2003, he served as Assistant Secretary-General and Special Adviser to United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan. Michael Doyle is married to Amy Gutmann.

The Hon. Ted Kaufman, Former U.S. Senator, State of Delaware, longtime friend and advisor to the Vice President

Kaufman represented Delaware in the United States Senate from Jan. 16, 2009 to Nov. 15, 2010, after which he became chair of the Congressional Oversight Panel. Kaufman has taught at Duke Law School since 1991; he also has taught in the Fuqua School of Business, and the Sanford School of Public Policy. From 1995 to 1999, Kaufman served as co-chair of the Law School's Center for the Study of Congress and he regularly teaches in the Duke in D.C. program. In 1995, Kaufman was appointed by President Clinton and confirmed by the U.S. Senate as a charter member of the Broadcasting Board of Governors. He was with Sen. Joseph R. Biden's staff from 1973 through 1994, and spent nineteen years as chief of staff. He previously worked for the Dupont Company in a variety of finance, technical, and marketing positions. He has a BSME from Duke University and an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Lynne Kaufman, Spouse of The Hon. Ted Kaufman
Kaufman has been married to former Sen. Ted Kaufman since 1960 and they reside in Wilmington, Delaware. They have three daughters, Kelly, Murry and Meg and 7 grandchildren.

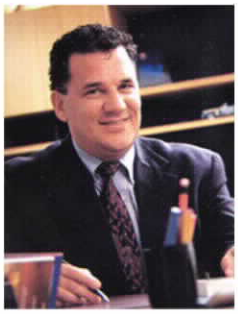

Mrs. Janet MacGilvray, Long-time supporter from West Islip, NY
She has been married to James MacGilvray for 45 years and currently resides in West Islip, NY. She has four children.

Mr. James P. MacGilvray, JP Mac LLC, CEO
MacGilvray is well known in the financial world, having served in senior management positions at UBS, PaineWebber and Fidelity. He serves on the boards of the Ronald McDonald House, NY; New York Foundling Hospital; the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation; and the Patrons Program for the Inner-City Schools. His wife of 45 years, Mrs. Janet MacGilvray, is also in attendance.

Dr. Robert Rosenwasser, Chairman of Neurosurgery, Thomas Jefferson University Hospital
Rosenwasser is recognized as one of the world leaders uniquely specialized as both a cerebrovascular neurosurgeon trained by Drs. Charles Drake and Skip Peerless as well as an interventional neuroradiologist trained by Dr. Alex Berenstein. Dr. Rosenwasser also performs all the radiosurgical treatments of arteriovenous malformations (AVMs) in the Division.

Dr. Deborah August, Anesthesiologist
August is an anesthesiologist in Philadelphia, PA. She is certified by the American Board of Anesthesiology and is married to Dr. Robert Rosenwasser.

Mr. George Tsunis, President, George Tsunis Real Estate
Prior to founding Chartwell Hotels, Tsunis was a partner at the law firm of Rivkin Radler LLP, Long Island's largest law firm. Tsunis currently serves as a member of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Council of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of the United States and a member of its Faith Endowment. As an Archon of the Ecumenical Patriarchate Order of Saint Andrew he serves on its National Council. He is also a member of the Brookings Institution's Foreign Policy Leadership Committee and its Metropolitan Leadership Council and has previously served as a Trustee at Dowling College and the Board of Visitors at Touro Law School. Tsunis received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from New York University and his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law. Mr. Tsunis and his wife Olga live on Long Island, New York with their three children.

Dr. Olga J. Tsunis
Tsunis attended New York University for both her undergraduate and graduate studies. She graduated with a Bachelor Degree in Physical Therapy in 1995 and started working at Mount Sinai Hospital treating patients with various dysfunctions. She received a Doctoral Degree in 2002 and specialized in rehabilitating patients with neurological impairments at New York Presbyterian Hospital. She is a mother of 3 and has been a stay at home mom since her son was born in 2007.

ENTERTAINMENT

Mumford & Sons

Mumford & Sons are a British folk rock band. The band consists of Marcus Mumford, Ben Lovett, Country Winston Marshall, and Ted Dwane. Mumford & Sons recorded an EP, Love Your Ground, and toured extensively in Ireland to expose audiences to their music and build support for an eventual album. Their debut album, Sigh No More, was released in the UK and Ireland in October 2009 and in the United States on February 2010. The album reached number one in Ireland, Australia and New Zealand and peaked at number two on the UK Album Chart and the Billboard 200 in the US. The band gained popularity throughout 2010, performing for larger audiences and making their first network television appearances in the U.S. In December 2010, the band received two Grammy Award nominations, one for Best New Artist and the other for Best Rock Song ("Little Lion Man"). They won the ARIA Music Award for Most Popular International Artist in 2010 and the British Award in 2011 for Best British Album. In 2011 they received an European Border Breakers Award for their international success.

John Legend

John Roger Stephens, better known as John Legend, is the recipient of nine Grammy Awards, and in 2007, he received the special Starlight award from the Songwriters Hall of Fame. Legend was a child prodigy whose grandmother taught him how to play the piano. He attended the University of Pennsylvania where he directed a coed a cappella group. After graduation, he switched gears and worked for Boston Consulting Group but continued to perform in nightclubs in New York City. Legend became an in-demand session musician and songwriter, working with such artists as Alicia Keys, Twista and Janet Jackson. Legend's debut album, 2004's Get Lifted, went platinum. He won three Grammy Awards for Get Lifted: Best R&B Album, Best R&B Male Vocal Performance and Best New Artist. Legend's sophomore effort, Once Again, was released in 2006.
