MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 1, 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Dingell Correspondence on
Marine Mammal Commission

You recently returned this package, submitted on January 7, with the notation that you hoped it was "OBE." No response has been sent to Dingell. According to Presidential Personnel, it is now widely known, including by Dingell, that the nomination of [REDACTED] -- the source of Dingell's concern -- is not going forward. A new candidate has not yet been selected for the opening. In light of the elapsed time since receipt of Dingell's letter, no response may now be the best response. Dingell asked in his letter only to be advised of actions taken to fill the Marine Mammal Commission opening, and that can be done when any such action is taken.

APPOINTMENT PROCESS PERSONAL INTERVIEW RECORD

DATE OF INTERVIEW: February 16 & 17, 1983 (by telephone)
CANDIDATE: George J. Adams
POSITION: Member, National Institute of Building Sciences
INTERVIEWER: John G. Roberts JGR

Comments

George Adams is the President and owner of a small business which produces automotive and airplane parts. He is being appointed to the Institute "as representative of the public interest," 12 U.S.C. § 1701j-2(c)(4). Under id. § 1701j-2(c)(3), representatives of the public interest "shall include . . . professional engineers . . . [and] shall hold no financial interest or membership in, nor be employed by, or receive other compensation from, any company, association, or other group associated with the manufacture, distribution, installation, or maintenance of specialized building products, equipment, systems, subsystems, or other construction materials and techniques for which there are available substitutes." Mr. Adams is a professional engineer and advises that he holds no interests and has no connections proscribed by the above-quoted provision.

According to Mr. Adams, his business is not engaged in construction activities that would present a conflict with his contemplated duties, but rather machine and parts production. His other financial holdings present no difficulty.
