

INACTIVE - ALL ITEMS SUPERSEDED OR OBSOLETE

Schedule Number: NC1-AFU-82-007

All items in this schedule are inactive. Items are either obsolete or have been superseded by newer NARA approved records schedules.

Description:

In 1989, Air Force submitted N1-AFU-90-003 to cover all of their temporary items in AFR 12-50, Volume II, Disposition of Air Force Records (dated 1987) under a single job number. The items on this schedule are temporary. It is assumed that the items on this schedule were therefore superseded by N1-AFU-90-003.

1	AIR FORCE OPEN MESS PROGRAM (Table 215-6) (Applicable Air Force-wide) The purpose of this submission is to establish a new table to cover the Air Force open mess program. Documents are required for administration, management, and operation of Air Force open mess facilities and programs. As open messes have the unique requirement to operate a profitable business activity, managers must have both current and historical documentation readily available for reference in a manner that is logical and in sequence with their operational procedures. Documents are used daily to plan and operate programs at base, MAJCOM, and Air Force level. Reference rule 1, the open mess is established by the base commander, is approved by MAJCOM with final action being taking by Air Force Manpower and Personnel Center. The charter and related documents are needed for at least 2 years after the discontinuance of the open mess or 2 years after the instrumentality is dissolved to insure that all actions are completed incident to the operation and closing of the open mess. The minutes (rule 2) of the Nonappropriated Fund Council, the advisory committee and the general membership committees

	present the members' views and advice to the open mess manager and the Chief, Morale, Welfare and Recreation. They recommend policies, rules for establishing membership requirements, recommend reinstatement of members, and other actions that impact on the open mess. These minutes may be destroyed 2 years after minutes no longer apply to, or impact on, the operation of the open mess. The files are needed for analysis, operation and control purposes. Rule 3 is self-explanatory. Reference rules 4 and 5, open mess employees attend local Air Force courses or courses at vocational or community adult education programs in food preparation, culinary arts, food service and other open mess-related subjects. All food handlers must also be trained by medical service personnel per AFR 163-8. The documents relating to training, the rosters of persons taking training or needing to take training, etc., are required for reference purposes for at least 2 years, when superseded or no longer needed. Rule 6, open mess managers must insure that open mess facilities operate according to sanitation rules and that employees meet personal hygiene standards. Any documentation related to the sanitation and housekeeping functions are required for operational purposes for at least 2 years. The in-house inspections are conducted once a week. The checklist used for this inspection is kept on file in the open mess for 90 days (rule 7). Rule 8 is self-explanatory; the 1-year retention period is normal for procurement of supply and equipment items (table 67-3, rule 1). Rule 9 covers repair, renovation, construction, etc., of the open mess facilities. The 3 years hold after fiscal completion is the same retention as for the regular construction projects (table 89-1, rule 6). Any problems arising from the work should be closed out 3 years after all claims are settled, all funds are paid, etc. The designation of the open mess by the commander as an essential feeding facility (rule 10) is needed for reference purposes for 2 years after the open mess is dissolved or when the commander rescinds the essential feeding facility designation. These records are needed for administrative reference and for insuring that actions on the facility are completed. Rules 11, 12, 13 are self-explanatory. In Rule 14, reports of inspections, audits, etc., are needed for 4 years or when superseded by a later audit/visit/inspection. Audits are generally made at every 3 years by Air Force auditors. The GAO does not audit nonappropriated funds activities. The documentation is used for comparisons, trend analysis and
