	Asset Seizure and Forfeiture Records  This schedule includes records that consist of seizure and forfeiture (administrative, civil judicial, criminal, and Reverse Asset Sharing) case files. The Secret Service Asset Forfeiture program (within the Office of Investigations) and Field Offices work with the Criminal Investigative Division, the Office of the Chief Counsel, the Treasury Executive Office for Asset Forfeiture, the Department of Justice (Attomey General), and the Federal courts to process all Secret Service seizures and forfeitures. The seizure and forfeiture process includes tracking assets seized by the Secret Service during investigations, reports on the status of assets while in custody, reports on the disposition of assets, distribution of proceeds from asset sales, and other disposal methods for fo part of an investigative case are maintained with the corresponding case file. The disposition authorities for Secret Service Investigative Records are found in NC1-87-84-001 and
