

ACTIVE ITEMS. These items, unless subsequently superseded, may be used by the agency to disposition records. It is the responsibility of the user to verify the items are still active.

This schedule applies to files maintained under the pre-Universal Case File Number system. In 2000 the FBI and NARA agreed that case files deemed permanent would be transferred 25 years after case closed. Supporting documentation is found in the NC1-065-82-04 dossier.

INACTIVE ITEMS. These items may no longer be used to disposition records. They are superseded, obsolete, filing instructions, describe non-records, or were lined off and not approved at the time of scheduling. References to more recent schedules are provided below as a courtesy. Some items may be annotated on the schedule.

(P) Permanent

(T) Temporary

This records schedule is the 1991 update to the records manual approved per American Friends Service Committee, et al., v. William H. Webster, et al. This is the second of three major updates. The records manual know as the "The Final Plan for the Records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, July 1, 1986" was moved from typed pages to a word processing document. During this conversion, the Part A and C references were inserted as disposition instructions into Parts B and D respectively for the convenience of reference. The approved authorities continue to be those items in Part A and C.

Files and records maintained at Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Headquarters and Field Offices to establish disposition authorities determined from the 5-year update required by the provisions of the 1984 Memorandum of Agreement executed by NARA and the FBI. The authorities are the results of the review of Classifications 259 - 279 which were created subsequent to the initial submission of the disposition schedule to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia; Automated Systems throughout FBIHQ and Field Offices; records for which disposition could not be determined due to lack of sufficient substance; and to correct discrepancies which have been detected within the Schedule. (Amended and additional pages will be inserted within the comprehensive disposition schedule [NARA Job NC1-65-82-04] which was approved by the Archivist of the United States and submitted to the Court on November 9, 1981, and accepted by the Court with the modifications of NARA Job NC1-65-86-25, on September 9, 1986.)

PART A
GENERAL DISPOSITION AUTHORITIES FOR HEADQUARTERS CASE FILES
The following authorities will be used for the disposition of the Headquarters records described below. These authorities apply regardless of the classification under which the records are filed.
1.	"OO" Files. Policy and procedural documentation regarding the FBI's administration of investigations conducted under individual violations or classifications. Records include internal memoranda, correspondence with other Federal agencies and with the Attorney General, directives establishing new policies and procedures, memoranda exchanged with Special Agents in Charge, drafts of legislation, and Executive Conference minutes and proposals. These "OO" files are found at the beginning of each classification preceding the sequentially numbered case files. PERMANENT. Offer to NARS in 10 year blocks when 50 years old.
2.	"O" Files. These records consist of a blend of documents, including those described in Item 1 above, as well as routine correspondence with the general public. Also included are records relating to nonsubstantive investigations of such routine character that a separate case file was not justified. In a number of classifications, the initial sections of "O" files are almost exclusively policy and procedural in nature. Subsequent sections will be screened by FBI so that any policy and procedural records can be filed within the "OO" files. These "O" files are physically maintained in front of the "OO" files at the beginning of each classification.

3	EXCEPTIONAL CASE FILES These Case Files document the FBI's investigation of a significant individual, event or organization; or evidence a precedent-setting program; or in some other way constitute a landmark case. A large number of Exceptional Case Files have been identified by representatives of the Archivist of the United States during their review of FBI Case Files and of the Interesting Case File Summaries [See Part E, Item 4]. In addition, a number of potential Exceptional Case Files have been recommended by Historians, Social Scientists, and other experts outside the Federal Government. This list of specific Exceptional Case Files will be supplemented by any Case File that meets one (1) or more of the following criteria, EXCLUDING Informant and Informant-Related Case Files. NOTE: It is emphasized that imposition of A, B, F, G, H, I, J and L of the General Criteria should not require a page-by-page review, but should be imposed relatively easily and without a great amount of research. Moreover, the General Criteria should not be applied in Classifications where all Case Files are already scheduled for PERMANENT retention. (A) Bureau Specials, FBIHQ- Designated Major Cases, Bureau-Identified Test Case Files and Field Office designated historical Case Files (B) Cases mentioned in the published Annual Reports of the Attorney General of the United States, where the identification of such Cases is evident from a review of the Annual Report  NOTE: Case information can be extracted from the Reports using Subject Names, Code-Names, Code-Words, etc. and checked through Manual and Automated Indices and stamped for PERMANENT retention (C) Cases mentioned in FBI testimony before or submitted in evidence to a Committee of Congress
