N1-122-98-2
Federal Trade Commission
1998 WNRC Project

Note: This schedule provides one-time only disposition authority for the specific accessions listed for records stored at WNRC. Similar records located elsewhere in agency custody must be scheduled through the submission of an SF 115.

1. Investigation Indices, 1915-1980

Two 3 X 5 card files, one alphabetically by commodity and one alphabetically by respondent, listing investigation case numbers for Applications for Issuance of Complaint Case Files and 7-Digit Case Files.

Acc. 122-81-0008 Boxes 1-24 → Confirmed at Lee's Summit, KS

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Transfer to the National Archives in FY99.

Justification: Finding aid used in correlation with History Sheets to formal investigations in NARA custody. In correlation with related History Sheets, used to document later FTC formal investigations not accessioned by NARA. NOTE: These cards have been filmed by FRC, using archival standards. The textual records are appraised for transfer for their ease of use. NARA may wish to also acquire the microfilm.

2. 7-Digit and Applications for Issuance of Complaint History Sheets, 1943-1971

Oversized (24 boxes - 15 1/2 x 15 1/2 x 3 1/2; 26 boxes - 11 3/4 x 16 1/2 x 5 3/4) formal investigation history sheets, File numbers 1-8000 through 695 8351, containing case numbers, respondents' names, brief description of documents in case file regarding the proceedings, service dates, and related information documenting the history of the investigation.

Acc. 122-79-006 Boxes 1-50 → Boxes 1-31 missing, boxes 32-50 at WNRC

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Transfer to NARA in FY 99 unless microfilm is acquired by NARA in which case textual records may be destroyed upon notification that microfilm has been accessioned.

Justification: Finding aid used in correlation with Investigation Indices to formal investigations in NARA custody. In correlation with related Investigation Indices, used to document later FTC formal investigations not accessioned by NARA. NOTE: N1-122-82-1 authorized the destruction of the history sheets for the formal investigations from 1915 to 1941 and authorized the transfer of the related microfilm to NARA. I find no evidence that the film was ever transferred.

3. OGC Congressional Legislation File, 74th - 93rd Congress

Requests for FTC opinions on pending legislation forwarded to the agency by Congressional Committee or MC, internal FRC memoranda, outgoing correspondence transmitting FTC opinion, copies of proposed bills, staff reports, Chairman's congressional testimony and related records maintained by the Office of General Counsel, 1921 - 1974.

Acc. 122-77-001 → All 55 boxes at WNRC

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Transfer to NARA in FY 99.

Justification: Documents FTC-Congressional relations and actions to reduce and/or expand FTC's regulatory powers via public law. NARA received a later part of this series as part of P-95 (transferred as General Files).

4. Export Trade Files, 1918 - 1956

Correspondence, corporate charters, bylaws, annual association reports, speeches, meeting minutes, and other records relating to associations reporting to FTC under the requirements of the Webb-Pomerene Export Trade Act of 1918.

Acc. 122-71-A5361 Boxes 1 - 47 → All 47 boxes missing

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Transfer to NARA in FY 99

Justification: Documents the formation of export trade associations to enable American exporters to sell in foreign markets on more equal terms with foreign competitors in the post-World War I era. Also contains informational value for those interested in history of foreign trade associations or any of the companies that were members thereof.

5. Public Service Announcements

Four public service announcement publications as 33 1/3 rpm radio spots in heavy paper or plastic mailing enclosures, containing information for radio station program announcements. Topics are: consumer rights, shopping by mail, purchasing generic drugs and buying home insulation by the "R" value.

Acc. 122-84-020 Boxes 1-6 → All 6 boxes missing

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Transfer 2 copies of each public service announcement to NARA in FY 99. Remainder to be destroyed as non-record.

Justification: FTC does not regularly produce PSAs. These are unscheduled copies that were duplicates, or were returned to FTC as undeliverable mail. FTC has stated that none of these currently exist in agency space.

6. Industry-wide Investigations, 1976 - 1981

Financial data, travel itineraries and brochures, publications, transportation schedules, correspondence and memoranda constituting Category I (history) materials for 762 3079 (Travel Investigation - Unnamed Sellers and Arrangers of Travel Services) and 761 0036 (Investigation of providers of medical services)

DISPOSITION Temporary Destroy when 25 years old

Justification Records are similar to disposable 7-Digit case files except for purpose 7-Digit case files are opened to investigate an individual respondent Industry-wide investigations are opened as an information gathering technique from which may come 7-Digit cases or rulemaking The investigation into the travel industry is c 300 c f of promotional travel materials, has no archival value, and documents an investigation that closed without a final report (FTC decided the CAB had a better chance of promulgating an enforceable rule) The investigation into physician control of Blue Shield produced a final report that permanent under a previously approved authority for publications and will transfer to NARA

Item 7 inactivated August 30, 2018. Explained elsewhere in dossier.

7. Bureau of Economics, Economic Studies

Data, correspondence, publications, memoranda, surveys and other background material to studies of optometry and insurance conducted by the Bureau of Economics, 1979-1980

Acc 122-64A-0226 - All 116 boxes at WNRC

DISPOSITION

Temporary Destroy when 25 years old.

Justification Accretion to NARA holdings of pre-1950 economic studies and reports

8. Office of General Counsel Closed Litigation Case Files, 1970-1989

Duplicate copies of documents submitted for the official case file for litigated cases May also include working notes, correspondence and memoranda

Acc. 122-80-0023 Boxes 18-22 - All at WNRC
Acc. 122-82-0063 Boxes 1-30 - Missing
Acc. 122-83-0010 Boxes 1-18 - All at WNRC

Acc. 122-90-0004 Boxes 1-16 - PW to FTC, 2/2005
Acc. 122-91-0004 Boxes 1-16 - Missing

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Destroy when 25 years old.

Justification: The permanent record is in the official case file.

9. P (Project) Files

Questionnaires, text results, published materials (non-record), respondent data, briefs, transcripts, survey forms, petitions, memoranda, correspondence and related background materials for various FTC projects, 1980-1986.

Acc. 122-88-0019 Boxes 1-80 - All 80 boxes at WNRC
Acc. 122-89-0003 Boxes 2-7 - Missing

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Destroy when 25 years old.

Justification: Background materials for these non-case related studies, projects, and surveys are not worthy of archival retention. The final published report or staff paper (permanent under another authority) should be transferred to NARA and will be enough essential evidence for these projects.

10. Merger Closings, pre-1958

News clippings, correspondence, memoranda, forms, assignment sheets and related records documenting FTC's investigations of mergers or acquisitions to ensure such actions did not create a monopoly or diminish competition. These records were created and maintained in the Bureau of Economics c. 1950-1958.

Acc. 122-71-E2001 Boxes 53-82 - All at WNRC

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Destroy upon approval of schedule.

Justification: All current premerger records at FTC are disposable. These older records are information gathered to see if a case should be opened. If a case was opened, the official record is the case file. If no case was opened, no fault was found in the respondent's action. There is no archival reason to maintain these records.

Item withdrawn; boxes missing

11. Professional Health Services Correspondence, 1979-1983

Incoming and outgoing general and Congressional correspondence file for Walter T. Winslow, Jr., Assistant Director of the Bureau of Competition, relating to professional health care issues.
