1 OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE FILE

The official correspondence file for the Division of Personnel and Human Resources contain official records on personnel matters which formulate, administer and evaluate personnel administration policies, standards and procedures for the agency. It consists of opinions and comments on proposed policies; documentations on policies and programs; history of the general program of TVA; organization charts; administrative releases and written instructions; personnel administration and programs; various activities pertaining to employment; materials related to classification and compensation of TVA positions; employee regulations and privileges; employee training and development; budget and appropriations; laws and legal matters; and various correspondence relating to the operations of the organization and the agency; and progress reports which document the activities of the organization. There are three file breaks listed below. The first two file segments are located in the Knoxville Records Center. The third segment was transferred to the Chattanooga Records Center because of a shortage of space in the Knoxville Records Center, but will be returned to Knoxville when space becomes available.

1933-1943 is arranged by the TVA Standard Decimal System and contains 34 cubic feet.

1944-1954 is arranged by the TVA Standard Alpha-Numeric System and contains 75 cubic feet.

1955-1988 is arranged by the TVA Standard Alpha-Numeric System and contains 225 cubic feet.

In July 1988, the Division of Personnel was renamed Human Resources and a new file was begun. Human Resources has retained responsibility of the Division of Personnel correspondence files.

Labor Relations began sending their official correspondence to this file in July 1988, excluding grievance files.

2 AREA AND COLLEGE RECRUITMENT REGISTER FILE

Employment Services keeps a register of Local Salary Policy Applicants, on the SB, SE, SF, and etc., scale. They receive applications only when a person finishes a degree and requests to be placed on the College Recruitment Register. The register is made up of abstracts of experience, education, and availability of all applicants posted on the appropriate variation of form TVA 1618. The register is used as a preliminary screening device in the referral of qualified candidates to fill job openings.
