INSURANCE PROGRAM RECORDS

11. Investment Insurance Case Files.

Arranged alphabetically by the name of the investor (individual or corporate), then by country, and then by contract number. These records are the case files concerning insurance on investments in the event of losses suffered from political violence, expropriation, and currency inconvertibility. Included are registrations, applications and project documents, contracts, amendments, action memorandum, embassy communications, foreign government approval(s), correspondence and project clearances.

When the contract is executed, it is transferred to Central Files. Subsequent documentation relating to the case, such as monitoring, financial, and other reports on the project for which the insurance has been granted are also filed in the official case file in Central Files. The case is considered closed when the period specified in the contract has expired, the investor terminates the contract, or the expiration of the period specified in the contract for the filing of claims is reached.

Original documents, considered vital records (the contract, all amendments, and Foreign Government Approvals), are stored off-site. Photocopies of these vital records are in the Central Files case files.

DATES: 1948 to date.

VOLUME: 150' cubic.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 3' cubic.

A) Cases Referred to the Investment Committee: PERMANENT. Transfer to WNRC one year after the case is closed. Transfer to the National archives when 20 years old in 5 year blocks.

B) Subject and Country Files.

Cut-off at the end of each fiscal year. Hold on-site in the Insurance Department for 15 years, then destroy.

14. Risk Sharing & Retention Agreement Files.

Arranged alphabetically by the name of the company or client, then by country. These files consist of memoranda, correspondence, reports, and other related records concerning OPIC's involvement in reinsurance, coinsurance, and cooperative insurance arrangements with insurance clients and private insurance companies, such as Lloyds of London, designed to spread the risk of large insurance payments.

DATES: 1976 to date.

VOLUME: 5' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: .5' linear.

PERMANENT. Transfer to WNRC 3 years after completion or termination of insurance. Transfer to the National Archives when 20 years old, in 5 year blocks.

FINANCE PROGRAM RECORDS

15. Finance Loan Case Files.

Arranged alphabetically by the investor's name (individual or corporate), then by country, and then by project number. These records consist of a copy of each application, investor consulting report, pre-disbursement project review and analysis, finance/loan agreements, amendments and extensions, loan monitoring reports, agreements with related memoranda, correspondence, legal documents, and other records. When the loan is formally agreed upon ("Committed"), all pertinent documents are sent to Central Files for filing in the official Finance Loan Case File. Subsequent documentation such as monitoring, financial, and other reports relating to the case are interfiled in the official case file in Central Files. An official case file is closed when the loan is repaid or canceled.

The original vital records are removed from the case files, and replaced with photocopies. The original vital records are sent to off-site vault storage as part of OPIC's Vital Records Protection Program.

DATES: 1971 to date.

VOLUME: 150' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 3' linear.

16. Finance "Private-Funds" Case Files.

Arranged alphabetically, by fund name and country. These files consist of correspondence, reports, and other records generated by the investigation, selection, and management of funds tailored to specific geographic areas or to specific industries. OPIC solicits fund proposals, selects the principals, provides some financing, and participates in its management but the funds are private (not government) owned and managed.

As of 5/1993: We only have 3 special funds: African Growth Fund, Asia-Pacific Growth Fund, & Poland Partners. East-European Growth Fund should be coming in the next few months.

DATES: 1987 to date.

VOLUME: 1' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: Negligible.

Disposition not approved.

INVESTMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM RECORDS

17. Project Development Program--Feasibility Studies.

Arranged by subject. These files consist of studies to examine investment opportunities suitable for OPIC programs.

DATES: 1982 to date.

VOLUME: 5' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: .5' linear.

A. Feasibility Studies for "Committed" Loans: Add to the loan case file in Central Files. Disposition will be the same as that loan case file.

B. All Other Studies: Transfer to the WNRC 5 years after the fund has terminated. Destroy 20 years after termination of the fund.

18. Briefing Books for Investment Missions.

Arranged by year and thereunder by region. These books are prepared for the information of investment mission participants and, secondarily, for the OPIC staff involved in the mission. They are designed to acquaint the U.S. participants with the investment climate and other information concerning the country. OPIC investment missions usually last one week and there are several missions each year. The books contain general information on U.S. and OPIC involvement in a particular country; on other financial aid programs within that country; press releases on the mission; biographical information on the OPIC and U.S. participants; and any specific information about the country that would be pertinent to the success of the mission.

Cut-off at the end of each fiscal year. Transfer to WNRC in 5 year blocks. Destroy when 10 years old.

20. Mission Trip Reports.

Arranged chronologically by date of the mission. These files consist of reports prepared at the end of each mission headed by an OPIC Vice-President narrating the investment climate and the business activity within the country, and giving impressions of the economic life of the country useful to the United States in developing foreign policy matters. A copy of this report is sent to the National Security Council.

DATES: 1983 to date.

VOLUME: .5' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: Negligible.

PERMANENT. Cut-off at the end of the fiscal year. Transfer to the WNRC when 5 years old. Transfer to the National Archives when 20 years old in 5 year blocks.

21. Investor Services Records.

These files consist of correspondence, reports, memoranda, and other records concerning the development and maintenance of services for potential U.S. investors in developing countries. OPIC encourages new investors in overseas business ventures by furnishing information concerning the business potential of the country and by furnishing information on OPIC's finance, insurance, and preinvestment services.

DATES: 1983 to 1994.

VOLUME: 17' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 3' linear.

Destroy when 3 years old.

22. Opportunity Bank Investor Information Service Records.

The files consist of information developed and sold to potential U.S. investors and sponsors of investment projects in developing countries. U.S. company and foreign project registrations are entered in a database and updated regularly. Records include information on sales of investment profiles, sales records, correspondence, and memoranda for the Investor Information Service.

DATES: 1983 to 1994.

VOLUME: 18' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 3' linear.

Destroy in OPIC when 3 years old, except for VISA/MASTERCARD receipts. Retain these receipts for 7 years.

23. Research Records.

Arranged by subject. The records include correspondence, reports, contracts, OPIC review documentation and final study reports and other records concerning the preparation of in-depth reports on topics of special interest to OPIC, such as worker rights in China.

DATES: 1976 to date.

VOLUME: 3' linear.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: Negligible.

PERMANENT. Maintain on-site at OPIC until 20 years old and then transfer to the National Archives.
