	Risk Management Agency (RMA) was established by the Federal Agriculture Improvement and Reform Act of 1996. Prior to 1996, crop insurance programs were administered by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC). The role of RMA is to help producers manage their business risk through effective, market based risk management solutions and to preserve and strengthen the economic stability of America's agricultural producers. RMA operates and manages the FCIC in accordance with the Act.
