(With Inclusive Dates or Retention Periods)

The Decennial Census Division wishes to blank this file because it is no longer needed for the division's current programs.

New York HVS From 1970 20% Decennial
4 III A Tapes

This file is described in Entry No. 124 of NC1-29-79-7. This particular file is an extract file of approximately 34,000 New York City residents derived from the 20% sample of the 1970 Decennial Census. The file data consists of the sample census data plus certain calculations derived from the Census data such as gross rent as a percent of family income and family income as a percent of some unspecified income level. Apparently, this file was created for New York City authorities in lieu of conducting the New York City Housing and Vacancy Survey in a Census year.

Note: File Entry Nos. 4-6 were listed on NC1-29-77-2, and authorized for disposal because they were duplicated by III-A tapes. Unfortunately, attempts to copy the III-A tapes have been less than successful since much of the file data proved to be not copyable. In addition, the III-A tapes and the 8c9 copies made therefrom also lack the necessary documentation. Consequently, the Bureau seeks permission to destroy the II-A, III-A, and 8c9 copies of the above ASM files.

Attached is a copy of memorandum outlining the procedures followed in copying II-A and III-A tapes.
