7	Army/American Council on Education Registry Transcript System (AARTS) AR 621-5 Background: The Army American Council on Education Registry Transcript System (AARTS) is an automated system receiving biographical data about Soldiers for periods of enlisted service, their military training, and MOS, as well as College Level Examination Program (CLEP), DANTES, ACT Assessment Program, and Excelsior College Examination Program. AARTS generates official transcripts including ACE college credit recommendations for Soldier experiences and testing. AARTS provides official American Council on Education (ACE) - endorsed transcripts of military training, Military Occupational Specialty (MOS), and civilian educational test scores with corresponding official college credit recommendations for military personnel and veterans. The next generation of AARTS will have the capability of including Warrant Officer 3-digit MOS's as well as Commissioned Officer MOS's. AARTS transcripts are currently available online and can be printed for unofficial use by Soldiers and Veterans. NOTE: Use record number (RN) 25-1kkk for source input records; RN 25-1lll for automated system administrative reports; RN 25-1mmm for system documentation and specification, and RN 25-1nnn for backup files.
