Sequence Number 1 1 Interactive Customer Evaluation (ICE) System Database Master Files The ICE system consists of 3 components the "Manager Side", "Customer Side", and "Survey Module". The Manager Side data fields comprises information provided by the service provider (SP), including but not limited to; name of the agency/organization of the comment card and SP, SP location, service description, POC (ICE Service Provider Manager) Name, POC work contact information, standard comment card questions and custom designed comment card questions (questions that they would like their customers to answer). The Customer Side consist of the comment card (questionnaires) developed by service provider on the Manager side and manually keyed in responses by customers including but not limited to customer comment, customer name and contact information such as home, work and/or personnel cell phone number and email address. (GRS 20, Item 2b) Survey Module ICE Survey Application is designed for collecting more detailed customer satisfaction and quality of life formation from target populations. ICE survey services can be requested by DoD organizations that have an established presence in the ICE System. New survey questionnaire is created each time and is available online for the users to respond for a limited time. Only ICE survey methodologist can access the Manager Side to create questionnaire. There aren't POC data fields in Survey Module. OUTPUTS: Include but are not limited to ADHOC and one-time reports as required by users establishing comment cards, system administrators and program managers. (GRS 20, Item16) Survey Module generates one time output that is created after the survey is closed. The output consists of a summary report of the users' responses, comments and a raw dataset. SYSTEM INTERFACES: N/A 1.1 ICE Comment Cards Submissions Disposition Authority Number DAA-0330-2014-0010-0001 ICE Database is a records repository for the Interactive Customer Evaluation (ICE) system. ICE is DoD wide, web-based tool that collects feedback on services provided by components, facilities and commercial vendors throughout the Department of Defense (DoD) relating to customer queries, responses; query monitoring and customer feedback records; and related trend analysis and reporting. The ICE system allows customers to create online comment cards to rate the service provided at military installations and related facilities around the world. Final Disposition Temporary Item Status Active Is this item media neutral?
