1100	Telecommunications and Command and Control Systems. The Director of Telecommunications and Command and Control Systems is responsible for the insurance of reliability, survivability, security, and cost-effectiveness of telecommunications, and command and control systems for the Department of Defense and the National Military Communications Systems. Unless otherwise indicated all permanent records transferred to the Washington National Records Center will become available to NARS when 25 years old. Depending upon volume files may be further subdivided by the use of a decimal numerical suffix.
1101	Office Administrative Files. These files may accumulate in any office to document the performance of their assigned duties. All of the administrative files listed below, however, seldom accumulate in a single office.
1101-01	Policy Files. Documents relating to preparing, coordinating, issuing, and interpreting policy matters directly related to fulfilling the functions described in para 1100 above. Additionally, formulation of policy on general purpose radio navigation, and the application of ADP technology to the command and control systems. Guidelines for the design and operation of the Worldwide Military Command and Control System (WWMCS).	Permanent. Transfer to WNRC when obsolete or superseded.

Category Number	Description of Records	Authorized Disposition Instruction
1101-02	Instruction Files. Documents related to preparing, coordinating, issuing, and interpreting directives, regulatory instructions, and comparable instructional material. These files accumulate in offices responsible for preparation and interpretation of instructions and include coordinating action, studies, interpretations, and published record copies of instructions, such as regulations, supplements, memorandums, circulars, pamphlets, and bulletins; messages used for expeditious interim changes to instructions; technical newsletters or comparable media used to forward semi-official and authoritative instructions; and official training materials.	Permanent. Cut off annually or on supersession or obsolescence, as reference needs require. Transfer to WNRC when no longer required for reference.
1101-03	Administrative files. Documents relating to the overall or general routine administration of finance and fiscal activities, but exclusive of specific files described in this regulation. These files include, but are not limited to: a. Routine comments on instructions, directives, or other publications prepared by another office with primary responsibility. If comments result in additional action affecting the mission or function of the office, documents should be filed with the appropriate mission functional files. b. Evaluations of suggestions that do not result in issuing an instruction or establishing a project.	Destroy after 2 years or on discontinuance, whichever is first. However, documents in the cut off file that require additional action or relate to reopened cases should be brought forward for filing in the current file.

Command and Control Files.

These files are concerned with the National Military Command System (NMCS) communications and its interface with unified and specified commands.

1102-01

Concepts and Strategy:

a. Documents which develop and coordinate command and control policies ~~and~~ implementing directives which define functional, organizational, and operational relationship between all elements of the Worldwide Command and Control System (WWMCCS) and establish responsibilities for the management, development, acquisition, and operation of WWMCCS.

b. Development and coordination of program budget policies and the creation of a management information system to monitor the WWMCCS.

c. Coordination and liaison documents with non-DoD activities which have functions associated with the National Military Command System (NMCS). For example, the White House situation Room, State Department Operations Center, CIA, OEP, FAA, and Coast Guard. The purpose of these documents is to insure appropriate military information is provided through these associated channels to enable
