1. Archival Sample (Complaint and Compliance Review Cases).

Criteria for Selection: Cases chosen should balance both the successes and failures of the program. A judicious selection includes cases which reveal ordinary or extraordinary problems. Unusual cases should be chosen for their illustration of new approaches; the precedents which they set; their effect on policy; and the new administrative, social, political, and legal problems they engender.

Determination of which cases are to be offered to the National Archives is to made at the time the files are retired to Federal Records Center for storage, and these cases are to be retired in a separate accession. (Selection is to be
