New item 6 (renumber present items 6, 7 & 8, as necessary)	Records Disposition Schedule 69 Community Planning and Development Grant Records This covers a special and unique set of documentation, both textual and photographic, produced as a result of HUD's biennial "National Awards for Urban Environmental Design" competition. Description of records is: HUD National Awards for Environmental Design Case Files. Files consist of competition entries, arranged alphabetically by name of entrant, and divided evenly in volume between supporting textual documentation and photographs. The records provide unique documentation, in both written and photographic form, of design and the design process involved in HUD-sponsored projects. These entries provide a valuable record of the successful efforts of local governments and private citizens to conserve and improve their urban habitat. The entries can be an invaluable research tool for others seeking to achieve similar results. Records on hand date from 1964 to present. Total volume: 100 cubic feet. Annual rate of accumulation: approximately 20 cubic feet. Approximately 10% of each year's volume consists of award winning entries.	NCL-207-79-6, approved 9/14/79.	Proposed Disposition Maintain at official files station until no longer needed for review and evaluation purposes, then transfer to National Archives. PERMANENT
