Introduction

- Part I: Procedures for Identifying Permanent Records and Transferring Records to FARCS
- Part II: Specific Instructions for Disposition (by individual classification numbers)

Introduction

The files of the Classification, Mail and File Unit in the Land and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, consists of (1) records created by the division in carrying out the Department's responsibilities in matters arising under the laws of the United States and in which legal action taken or considered, and (2) records created by the Department and administrative matters relating to the Department and its various subordinate units and to the offices of United States Attorneys.

The files of the Classification, Mail and File Unit of the Land and Natural Resources Division are arranged by a subject-numeric system that uses numerical file designations usually made up of several parts. The primary classes, now numbering some 192, are usually identified with Federal laws or administrative or other subject titles. The secondary classes or sub-number, usually identify particular judicial districts, although this sequence is sometimes varied to include certain statutory subparts, certain subjects or commodities, or other specific subject matter. A third sequence of numbers is used to identify each file folder which usually contains documents pertaining to particular cases that arise within a given district.

Part I - Procedures for Identifying Permanent Records and Transferring Records to FARCS.

1. CORRESPONDENCE AND ENCLOSURE FILES

- A. Correspondence and enclosure files relating to water rights (90-1-2) and quiet land titles (90-1-5), exclusive of those cases brought under 28 U.S.C. 2410.
- B. Selected correspondence and enclosure files of significant historic value from remaining classifications.

- (1) Closed correspondence and enclosure files retired to the Federal Archives and Records Center (FARC) prior to January 1, 1987.

Closed Cases: Cited by name in a previous edition of the Annual Report of the Attorney General, reviewed by the Supreme Court, or designated priority 1 by the Land and Natural Resources Division. In addition, lists of cases submitted by the various sections of the Land and Natural Resources Division, and supplemental listings compiled by FARC personnel from other appropriate sources.

Procedure. The Land and Natural Resources Division shall prepare a list of all its cases cited in Annual Report of the Attorney General, 1941-1980, and drawn from the sources noted in 1B(1) above, reference accession and box location numbers, and submit the lists to the FARC via Standard Form 258, Request to Transfer Approval and Receipt of Records. FARC shall segregate the correspondence and enclosure files for these cases for permanent retention. These will be transferred to NARS after the expiration of the retention periods cited in Part II - Specific Instructions for Disposition.

Estimated volume: 700 cu. ft.

- (2) Closed correspondence and enclosure files retired to FARC after January 1, 1987.

Prior to transfer of closed files to FARC, the Land and Natural Resources Division shall select, segregate and designate files of significant historic value according to one or more of the following criteria.

- (a) A case can be regarded as significant in terms of its legal impact on statutes, rules, or regulations or law enforcement policies.
- (b) An investigation or case can be regarded as significant in terms of outstanding economic and social impact.
- (c) An investigation or case can be regarded as significant in terms of intensity of public interest, expressed by (1) a demonstrated interest of a congressional committee or the Executive Office of the President, or (2) a high degree of National media attention.

In applying the criteria listed above, the Land and Natural Resources Division may use, but are not restricted to, the following sources: the Annual Report of the Attorney General, cases reviewed by the Supreme Court, and cases designated as priority 1.

Procedure. Correspondence and enclosure files selected by the Land and Natural Resources Division for permanent retention shall be listed individually by case name on Standard Form 135, Records Transmittal and Receipt, and boxed separately from unselected or general files for transmittal to FARC. A case is closed upon a verdict, discontinuance, dismissal, quashing, completed litigation or appeals, and/or finalization of collection of fines. Correspondence and enclosure files may include pleadings and other forms of legal documentation. For retention periods of unselected correspondence and enclosure files refer to Part II - Specific Instructions for Disposition.

Estimated Volume: 55 cu. ft. per year
