GENERAL AGENCY MISSION

UNICOR is the legal trade name for the Federal Prison Industries (FPI), a wholly-owned, Government corporation established by Congress on June 23, 1934. Its mission is to employ and provide job skills training to the greatest practicable number of inmates confined within the Federal Bureau of Prisons; contribute to the safety and security of our Nation's Federal correctional facilities by keeping inmates constructively occupied; produce market-priced quality goods and services for sale to the Federal Government; operate in a self-sustaining manner; and minimize FPI's impact on private business and labor.

1. UNICOR'S WEB SITE:

The website was created to provide access to general and operational information, as well as easier access to purchase its products. Through this site customers can view different product descriptions, features, and their prices. Customers may purchase items online, and/or find the contact numbers to purchase offline. The site connected to other agency systems such as the Millennium system(N1-129-04-08) which tracks the overall production operation of the products and prices. The web site is fed from a Microsoft Visual System Safe (UNICOR-VSS) system, which also provides information version control/chronological file management.

- A. ~~INPUT: eRecords originating from the Millennium system among other database sources. Non-database input consisting of PDF, DOC, and/or Flash digital video files use to provide product information, news, publications, reports, instructions, procedures, and news summaries among a variety of materials and information of public interest that meets the mission and scope of the agency. Manual entry of order information as well as conference schedules and related input.~~

~~Disposition: Temporary. Destroy when superceded, obsolete, or no longer needed for reference purposes, whichever is later.~~

- B. OUTPUT: Database update to the Millennium system entailing new or updated orders. Paper output could be in the form of customer's receipt, order status reports, schedules for nationwide conference and/or trade show participation. Summary statistical reports for user trend analysis, system response time tracking, system optimization analysis, and access tracking information for law-enforcement purposes.

Disposition. Temporary. Destroy when superceded, obsolete, or no longer needed for reference purposes, whichever is later.

- C. DATA: Copies of electronic text (HTML/PDF), images (JPEG), video/audio (FLASH), and fielded database information describing products, services, and customer marketing materials for public dissemination. Also includes user information extracted from a connection to the website and includes the user's internet domain name, IP address, browser and operating system, date and time of connection, areas accessed, information requested, possible errors encountered, and the website from which the connection took place, among other system information elements, primarily collected for statistical analysis and technical improvements to the site.

Disposition. Temporary. Destroy when no longer needed for reference, trends, analysis or law-enforcement purposes.

- D. SYSTEM DOCUMENTATION: Technical information (including record layout and code books) and instructional documentation demonstrating the use of the system, location of files, tables, and programming parameters, and other system functions.
