(Total retention period - 10 years after final judgement). b. In the event that a case sets a precedent or has historical significance, as determined by the Central Office, Office of General Counsel, the file will be forwarded by the office of record to the Central Office of General Counsel 3 years after final judgement. The file will be retained in the Central Office of General Counsel for an additional 2 years, then transferred to the FRC to be retained an additional 20 years, then offered to the National Archives.			All Changes to this proposed schedule have been approved by:  NARA Appraiser	10/4/88  BOP Records Officer
