Chief Counsel Records

1. Legal Advisory Opinion Memorandum Files of Historical Significance are maintained by the Office of Chief Counsel in connection with the development of significant legal opinions and memoranda. Files of historical significance include, but are not limited to, legal issues of first impression and precedent, the interpretation of enabling legislation, and issues that have the potential for long-term and wide ranging legal impact. Such files will contain, at a minimum, a copy of the final written opinion and background documentation.
Disposition. Permanent. Cutoff files at the end of the fiscal year that the opinion is completed. Offer to NARA 25 years after cutoff.
2. Legal Advisory Opinion Memorandum Files are maintained by the Office of Chief Counsel in connection with the development of legal opinions and memoranda. Such files will contain, at a minimum, a copy of the final written opinion and background documentation.
Disposition. Temporary. Cutoff files at the end of fiscal year that the opinion is completed. Transfer to Federal Record Center (FRC) 2 years after cutoff. Destroy 7 years after cutoff.
3. Regulations Promulgated by the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration are maintained by the Office of Chief Counsel in connection with the development of regulations pursuant to authority granted by the Inspector General Act of 1978, 5 U.S.C. app. § 3 (1998). These files include regulations that are created by TIGTA in order to systematically develop the rules and processes by which TIGTA may execute its authority.
Disposition: Permanent. Cutoff files at the end of the fiscal year that the regulation is promulgated. Maintain in office for two (2) years and then offer to NARA for permanent maintenance.
4. Legislation Reviewed by the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration is maintained by the Office of Chief Counsel in connection with the monitoring of legislative activity that may effect the mission and operation of TIGTA.
Disposition: Temporary. Cutoff files at the end of the fiscal year that the legislation was introduced to Congress. Destroy 4 years after cutoff.
5. Significant Litigation Files consist of a record of pleadings, correspondence, memoranda, studies, appraisals, decisions and related documents for administrative and judicial proceedings. These records include administrative claims that may result in litigation. Files designated as "significant" include, but are not limited to, cases that involve novel legal issues or facts, cases that impact the entire operations of TIGTA or an entire functional area of TIGTA, class action lawsuits, cases with a high dollar value, cases that are extremely complex, and, cases that involve recurring litigants requiring a longer period of access to those files.

Disposition. Permanent. Cutoff files at the end of fiscal year that the litigation is ended. Transfer to FRC 10 years after cutoff. Offer to NARA 15 years after cutoff.

6. Litigation Case Files consist of a record of pleadings, correspondence, memoranda, studies, appraisals, decisions and related documents for administrative and judicial proceedings. These records include administrative claims that may result in litigation.
Disposition. Temporary. Litigation Case Files: Cutoff files at end of the fiscal year during which the litigation ended. Transfer to FRC 2 years after cutoff. Destroy 7 years after cutoff.

Electronic Records

7. Electronic Mail and Word Processing System Copies consist of electronic copies of records created on electronic mail and word processing systems that are maintained for updating, revisions or dissemination.
 - a. Copies that have no further administrative value after the record keeping copy are made. Includes copies maintained by individuals in personal files, personal electronic mail directories, or to their personal directories on hard disk or network drives, and copies on shared network drives that are used only to produce the recordkeeping copy.
Disposition: Temporary. Destroy/delete when recordkeeping copy has been produced.
 - b. Copies used for dissemination, revision, or updating that are maintained in addition to the recordkeeping copy.
Disposition: Temporary. Destroy/delete when dissemination, revision, or updating is completed.
