7. ITEM NO.	8. DESCRIPTION OF ITEM AND PROPOSED DISPOSITION	9. GRS OR SUPERSEDED JOB CITATION	10. ACTION TAKEN (NARA USE ONLY)
	Mission of the Legislative Affairs Division The Legislative Affairs Division is responsible for planning, developing, directing, and evaluating the Congressional and legislative activities of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). It also provides a wide variety of services related to the development of legislative proposals and to the review, analysis, and implementation of new legislation affecting tax administration and IRS as an employer; coordinates the preparation of testimony and related background material for Congressional hearings; monitors the hearings, oversees the Government Accounting Office (GAO) review process and coordinates replies to GAO draft and final reports; handles Congressional calls and letters sent to the Headquarters office; and provides liaison and outreach efforts to Congress and to IRS executives and staff, principally through the Congressional Affairs Program (CAP). The Legislative Affairs Division also acts as the agency's coordinator and reviewer of tax proposals generated from both internal and external sources. Position papers are prepared on a variety of tax issues and those affecting the Service as an employer. These files, arranged by Internal Revenue Code section and subject, are maintained in the Research Center. These are NOT duplicative files since many issues are not limited to Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code, but span several U.S. Code titles. The Legislative Affairs Division coordinates legislative, investigative and oversight hearings. Legislative hearings explore the pros and cons of a specific piece of legislation and its provisions; investigative hearings review evidence of wrongdoing; and oversight hearings are conducted to enable Congress to fulfill its authority to fund and review programs. For major hearings, briefing books are prepared with invitation letters, background information on the Committee and its members, oral and written statements, documentation, and Questions and Answers. At the conclusion of the hearing, all related materials are gathered for the file. These files are maintained in the Legislative Affairs Research Center.
