Replaces

Bureau of Government Financial Operations
Assistant Commissioner, Banking and Cash Management
Domestic Banking Staff
And
Foreign Banking Staff

1. Central Correspondence Files of the Domestic Banking Staff and the Foreign Banking Staff. Correspondence, memorandums, copies of legislation, publications of other Federal agencies, reports, studies, and other records documenting all phases of the work of these two separate staffs. The records deal with Foreign Currency Histories; the application of P.L. 480, the Food for Peace Program; and, various subject files on foreign currency matters. The files are primarily arranged by major topic, for example, foreign currency histories, and alphabetically thereunder by name of country. Some are also described as miscellaneous subject files and arranged as such. The records contain national security-classified material up to and including "Secret." Inclusive dates range from April 1941 through February 1976.

Disposition: Permanent. Transfer to the National Archives of the United States immediately upon approval of this schedule.

WNRC Accession: 425-79-0004, Boxes 1 through 18, inclusive.

And

Bureau of Accounts
Deputy Commissioner for Deposits and Investments
Investments Branch

2. Lend Lease and Surplus Property Files. The records consist of correspondence, memorandums, agreements, reports, and related records concerning the Lend Lease program and the disposition of surplus property. The files are primarily arranged alphabetically by name of country, with subsidiary subject headings related to country-specific topics, for example, "Guatemala Agreements" and "Guatemala Correspondence." The files contain national security-classified material up to and including "Secret." Inclusive dates range from January 1941 through December 1952.

Disposition: Permanent. Transfer to the National Archives of the United States immediately upon approval of this schedule.

WNRC Accession: 039-68A2757, Boxes 1 through 6, inclusive.

NOTE: The Bureau of Government Financial Operations proposed the disposition of the records described in item 1 of this schedule in Job No. NC1-425-78-1, items 1c(1) and 1c(2). Those items were withdrawn from that job.
