IMPORTANT NOTICE (DOCUMENT PRESERVATION)

Even though the OTS Records Retention Schedule may permit you to destroy a document (either in hard copy or in an electronic form) after a specified number of years, OTS may nevertheless have a legal duty to continue to retain that document beyond the specified retention period. For this reason, when the retention period in the Records Retention Schedule has expired for documents in your unit, please do the following.

- (1) Review the OTS Legal Document Preservation Requirements Memorandum, which identifies categories of information that you must not destroy. Note in particular, that some goodwill cases remain pending and require the preservation of various categories of documents. You may access the Preservation Memorandum at the following link for more information: Legal Document Preservation Requirements
- (2) Notify and obtain approval from Records Management before destroying any documents pursuant to this Records Retention Schedule. Please contact Heather Westing at extension 6150, Albert Samson at extension 7297 or Rosalye Settles at extension 7985.

We appreciate your continued cooperation in making certain that OTS meets its obligation to retain those documents that we are legally required to save.
