INACTIVE - ALL ITEMS SUPERSEDED OR OBSOLETE

Schedule Number: N1-237-05-002

All items in this schedule are inactive. Items are either obsolete or have been superseded by newer NARA approved records schedules.

Explanation / Description:

This schedule is superseded in full by DAA-0237-2021-0011.

N1-237-05-002 / 1/a/1 is superseded by DAA-0237-2021-0011-0001.

N1-237-05-002 / 1/c is superseded by DAA-0237-2021-0011-0001.

N1-237-05-002 / 1/a is superseded by DAA-0237-2021-0011-0002.

N1-237-05-002 / 1/b is superseded by DAA-0237-2021-0011-0002.

N1-237-05-002 / 1/d is superseded by DAA-0237-2021-0011-0002.

Date Reported: 12/19/2022

REQUEST FOR RECORDS DISPOS	SITION AUTHORITY	JOB NUMBER	37-03	Z
To: NATIONAL ARCHIVES & RECORDS 8601 ADELPHI ROAD COLLEGE PA		7) 1-23 Date received 2-4-	2005	•
FROM (Agency or establishment)     DOT/Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)		ļ	TIFICATION TO
2 MAJOR SUBDIVISION Regulatory Support Division, AFS-600 3 MINOR SUBDIVISION Assisting Data September Provide AFS (2)	0	disposition request	, including ar that may be	of 44 U.S.C. 3303a, the mendments, is approved marked "disposition not 10
Aviation Data Systems Branch, AFS-62  4. NAME OF PERSON WITH WHOM TO CONFER Chiquita Meier	5 TELEPHONE NUMBER (405) 954-6414	DATE	ARCHIVIST O	OF THE UNITED STATES
6 AGENCY CERTIFICATION I hereby certify that I am authorized to act proposed for disposal on the attached 2 the retention periods specified, and that writhe GAO Manual for Guidance of Federal A	_ page(s) are not needed now fo tten concurrence from the Gene agencies,	ning to the disposition the business for the ral Accounting Offi	ion of its recons agency or ice, under the	ords and that the records will not be needed after
DATE SIGNATURE OF AGENC	Is attached, or	TITLE	en requested  A TIM	orals / There
7 ITEM 8 DESCRIPTION OF ITEM AN	D PROPOSED DISPOSITION	SUPERSE	RS OR EDED JOB TION	10 ACTION TAKEN (NARA USE ONLY)
[See Attache	ed]
RA Charles MR	TUIME TUINT

,
,*	, ,
REQUEST FOR RECORDS DISPOSITION AUTI	HORITY-CONTINUATION	Job Number y1- 237-05- Z	Page 2 of 3

10. Action  Accident/Incident Database System (AIDS). An automated database system will be listed as Item 8020.   Accident/Incident Database System (AIDS). An automated database system that contains relevant information accidents/incidents  a Database Contains significant accident/incident information associated with a specific accident or incident. Records contain information in the following segments circleal dates, location, general data, lectricial data, personger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and miscellaneous information  PERMANENT. Cut off every December 31 and transfer to NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version  (1) Specific Pilot identifier. Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this ruit applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period. When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free pirod occurs  b AIDS Inputs. FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records. Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original  (2) Image file Delete when 3 years old
(Note: This system will be listed as Item 8020.  Accident/Incident Database System (AIDS). An automated database system that contains relevant information concerning aviation accidents/incidents  a Database Contains significant accident/incident information associated with a specific accident or incident Records contain information in the following segments critical dates, location, general data, technical data, passenger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and miscellaneous information  PERMANENT. Cut off every December 31 and transfer to NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version  (1) Specific Plot Identifier Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs  b AIDS Inputs FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original		8 Description of Item and Proposed Disposition	1 1	•
Accident/Incident Database System (AIDS). An automated database system that contains relevant information concerning aviation accidents/incidents  a Database Contains significant accident/incident information associated with a specific accident or incident Records contain information in the following segments critical dates, location, general data, technical data, passenger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and miscellaneous information.  PERMANENT. Cut off every December 31 and transfer to NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version  (1) Specific Pilot Identifier Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs  b AIDS Inputs FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records. Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original		ACCIDENT AND INCIDENT INVESTIGATION AND REPORTING aviation accidents/incidents  a Database Contains significant accident/incident information associated with a specific accident or incident. Records contain information in the following segments critical dates, location, general data, technical data, passenger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and miscellaneous information.  PERMANENT. Cut off every December 31 and transfer to NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version.  (1) Specific Pilot Identifier. Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database.  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs.  b AIDS Inputs. FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent).  (1) Original paper records. Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original.		(Note: This system will be listed as Item 8020.$ in FAA Order 1350.15.)
associated with a specific accident or incident. Records contain information in the following segments critical dates, location, general data, technical data, passenger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and miscellaneous information.  PERMANENT. Cut off every December 31 and transfer to NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version.  (1) Specific Pilot Identifier Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database.  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period. When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs.  b AIDS Inputs. FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent).  (1) Original paper records. Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original.	1	database system that contains relevant information concerning
NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information in that version  (1) Specific Pilot Identifier—Pertains to the specific pilot name and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe—The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs  b AIDS Inputs—FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records—Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original		associated with a specific accident or incident. Records contain information in the following segments: critical dates, location, general data, technical data, passenger, aircraft and engine information, operator and pilot information, and
and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot information segment of the database  Delete the operating pilot's name and certificate number fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period. When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs.  b AIDS Inputs. FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident. Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records. Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original.		NARA annually (or before January 31) in accordance with 36 CFR 1228 270 and related NARA instructions and guidance NARA may destroy a previous version of the data after verification that a subsequent transfer contains the information fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period. When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year event-free period occurs.  b AIDS Inputs FAA Form 8020-23, FAA Accident/Incident Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original		and certificate number fields maintained within the pilot
Report (or its equivalent)  (1) Original paper records  Destroy after determining image is an adequate substitute for the original		fields at the end of the month following the month in which they complete a 5-year event-free timeframe. The exception to this rule applies when a subsequent event has occurred with the same pilot within the 5-year period. When this transpires, the specific pilot identifier in the first or any subsequent records will remain on file until a 5-year.
is an adequate substitute for the original
(2) Image file Delete when 3 years old
		(2) Image file Delete when 3 years old

EQUEST FOR RECORDS DISPOSITION AUTHORITY-CONTINUATION	Job Number N1-237-05-Z	Page 3 of 3 c AIDS Outputs Includes statistical and GAO reports (This item does not include Privacy Act Request responses and Freedom of Information Act responses These records are covered by Items 1270 and 1280 in this manual )  Cut off at end of calendar year
d AIDS Documentation Includes System Administrator documentation, policy and procedures, data models, table definitions, code books, record layouts, user manuals, and data dictionaries
PERMANENT Transfer a copy of the documentation to NARA with the files from the database Transfer updates and

•