1	Department of Veterans Affairs Veterans Health Administration The Medical Inspector's Office oversees quality management programs at the local and regional level. The office reviews aspects of quality in VA medical facilities to determine the appropriateness of patient care and services, effective utilization of resources, safety of patients, and the conduct or performance of VA employees and others engaged in the provision or support of patient care. The Medical Inspector Investigation Records pertain to investigations to identify problems in the delivery of health care, to analyze and review actual and potential problems, and to propose corrective action. The records are the results of investigations of unexpected or unfavorable incidents which patients encounter during the course of treatment. Such incidents include those which would not be considered
