1.	A veteran is eligible to receive educational benefits under Title 38, U.S.C., Chapter 32 if they participated in the program and are not eligible for educational assistance under chapter 34. No educational assistance benefits are afforded an eligible veteran under this chapter beyond the date of 10 years after veteran's last discharge or release from active duty. In the event an eligible veteran has not utilized any or all of their entitlement by the end of the 10 year period, the veteran is automatically disenrolled and any contributions remaining in the fund are refunded. Presently, claims folders with an estimated life of approximately 150 years are created for these cases. This disposition request establishes a lightweight folder for these cases with shorter retention periods. Veteran Educational Assistance Folders documenting education or training authorized by Title 38, U.S.C., chapter 32. Folders on eligible persons who enter training other than folders on cases terminated by death.	New Shows	7
