Subject Disposition dates for OMB schedules

> I recommend that the disposition dates for all permanent items in NCl-51-79-2 and NCl-51-79-8 (Office of Management and Budget) be amended to read "Transfer to NARA when 30 years old." These schedules relate to records of the National Security and International Affairs Divisions. NCl-51-79-2 provides that the records should be offered to NARA when the records are eight (8) years old. NCl-51-79-8 was amended in 1979 to 20 years. The records involve a significant amount of national security classified information which will not be eligible for systematic review until 30 years old.

> NIR should also examine the disposition date of NC1-51-79-4, records of the Energy and Science Division, which covers records relating to nuclear and space programs. BOB/OMB records relating to these subjects accessioned in the past were often highly classified. These records should also be scheduled for transfer to NARA when 30 years old.

NNFJ is holding three SF258's for records covered by the above schedules pending the resolution of the question of the disposition dates.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

CLAŘENCE F. LÝONS, JR. Chief Judicial, Fiscal, and Social Branch Civil Archives Division

NIR (8-25-88): NNFJ's proposal to change the disposition (transfer) statement for the above cited jobs appears reasonable to me. Please keep NNFJ informed of the progress on this request.
