1. Multiple Name Personnel Action Files, 1869-1955, 162 cu. ft.

Arranged alphabetically by name of city.

Various Post Office 1500-series forms and related correspondence documenting such personnel actions as appointments, separations, and promotions for all positions and for regular, substitute, and temporary (including Christmas temporary) employees. An individual form may contain as few as one or as many as 20 or 30 names of employees, and the information provided is fragmentary in nature, e.g., name, title, action taken, effective date, and salary. In addition, these records are not complete for most post offices, but generally cover only a few years. Although the date span of this series is 1869-1955, the bulk of the records were created in the period 1920-45. For these reasons, the series is rarely utilized by the CPR staff to answer reference inquiries.

This series also contains for a few post offices a scattering of other correspondence, such as oaths of office, job applications, personnel history statements, certificates of medical examinations, and similar records that constitute Official Personnel Folders. It appears that individual post offices forwarded to this General
