Records Relating to the Commissioning of Examiners

#. Examiner Commissioning Files

The file for each examiner documents completion of the formal training courses and on-job training required in preparation for the commissioning examination. The file also includes the written portions of the commissioning examination and the evaluations by the test administrators of the oral portions of the examination. (Note: A copy of the letter awarding the final commissioning certificate is also filed in the employee's official personnel folder.)

Destroy five years after termination of employee.

2. Examiner Commissioning Tracking System

This automated system contains much of the data contained in the files described in item a above. The system is used as a management tool to track the progress of the examiners.

Revise, correct, or update as necessary. One year after termination of employee, output information in hardcopy format. File hardcopy output in paper files described in item a above and purge electronic system.

3. Examiner Commissioning Training Materials

(A) Course outlines and printed materials used in the examiner courses.

Permanent. Maintain a record set of course outlines with associated training materials. Transfer to NARA in 5-year blocks, beginning in /190.

(a) Tests taken at end of each training course.

Destroy when successful completion of course is recorded in examiner commissioning files and tracking system.
