1. General Agency Files Pertaining to the Farm Credit Administration

Includes records received or created by FCA related to the administration, organization, policies and functions of FCA as an agency.

From 1933 - July 1988 these records were organized by a decimal filing scheme consisting of 3 digits from 000 thru 999 with an added digit after the decimal point in some cases. For example, 378.7.

After July 1988, the records were organized by a new classification scheme in which subjects were arranged alphabetically.

Permanent. Offer to National Archives in 10 year segments when 20 years old.

Supersedes N1-103-77-1, item 6.

2. General Files Relating to the Farm Credit System

Consists of correspondence and other records written to, from, or about the financial institutions and other entities of the Farm Credit System. The records relate to the administration, organization, functions, and operations of the System institutions or entities.

From 1933 - July 1988 these records were organized by: (1) Type of organization (Federal Land Bank; Bank for Cooperatives, etc.) (2) district; and (3) numeric subject headings.

After July, 1988, the records were organized by case files for each institution or entity plus a general case file for records pertaining to a class of organizations. (For example, a "General--Farm Credit Bank" file for records pertaining to Farm Credit Banks as a whole.) Within a case file, arrangement is by alphabetical subject headings.

Permanent. Offer to National Archives in 10 year segments when 20 years old.

Supersedes N1-103-77-1 items 7, 8, and 9.

3. Index cards to Classified Files 1927-1988

Finding aid to the central agency files of the Farm Credit Administration (N1-103-77-1, items 6, 7, 8, and 9) and possibly to files of precursor organizations. These files have been appraised as permanent records.

The cards relate to records dated 1927 to 1988 when the indexing was discontinued. A total of 70 linear feet of 3x5 cards (7.28 cubic feet) are in the series.

Permanent. Offer to Archives upon approval of this schedule.

4. Official files of former members of Farm Credit Administration Board.

Transfer to Federal Records Center at the end of the term of the Board member. Destroy 30 years after end of term of the Board member.
