7. ITEM NO.	8. DESCRIPTION OF ITEM (With Inclusive Dates or Retention Periods)	9. SAMPLE OR JOB NO.	10. ACTION TAKEN
1.	Intermediate (non-record) data in the form of punch cards compiled from court records of civil default judgments of consumer loans in New York City, for a period in the summer of 1972, to determine if collusion existed between process servers, attorneys and/or plaintiffs in these civil actions. Data is on magnetic tape and consists of names of plaintiffs and their attorneys, names of process servers and defendants, dates of service or attempted service, and amount of judgment won by default. These cards, approximately 16 cubic feet, should be retained for a period of five years and then destroyed.
