	Coal Mine Quality Performance Records When a contract is awarded to a coal company for purchase of coal, form TVA 9666, Coal Mine Quality Performance Records, is kept on the coal mine from which the company takes coal. The form lists the state, county, and seam from which the coal will be taken along with the producer's name, identification of the mine, and the type of operation. As shipments are received by TVA, samples of the coal are taken from each shipment and tested to determine coal quality; the results on each shipment are posted to the form until the contract is fulfilled. The information on this form constitutes a comprehensive record of coal quality from the company's open and closed contracts and is valued as historical reference material as this form is the only record available within TVA relating to the quality of coal in specific areas. When additional coal is purchased, this form is used to compare and evaluate offers received from coal companies to determine if their bid is representative of coal in the area.
