The Division also provides guidance to companies on SEC rules and forms and proposes new and revised rules to the Commission.• The Division of Investment Management: The Division of Investment Management (IM) regulates investment companies, variable insurance products, and federally registered investment advisers. Types of investment companies include mutual funds, closed-end funds, unit investment trusts, and exchange-traded funds. IM works to support the SEC in its mission to protect investors, maintain fair, orderly, and efficient markets, and facilitate capital formation.• The Division of Trading and Markets: The Division of Trading and Markets (TM) establishes and maintains standards for fair, orderly, and efficient markets. The division regulates the major securities market participants, including broker-dealers, self-regulatory organizations (such as stock exchanges, FINRA, and clearing agencies), and transfer agents.

- The Division of Examinations: The Division of Examinations conducts the SEC's National Exam Program (NEP). The NEP's mission is to protect investors, ensure market integrity and support responsible capital formation through risk-focused strategies that: (1) improve compliance; (2) prevent fraud; (3) monitor risk; and (4) inform policy. The results of the NEP's examinations are used by the SEC to inform rule-making initiatives, identify and monitor risks, improve industry practices and pursue misconduct.
- The Office of Credit Ratings: The Office of Credit Ratings (OCR) assists the Commission in executing its responsibility for protecting investors, promoting capital formation, and maintaining fair, orderly, and efficient markets through the oversight of credit rating agencies registered with the Commission as "nationally recognized statistical rating organizations" (NRSROs). In support of this mission, OCR monitors the activities and conducts examinations of registered NRSROs to assess and promote compliance with statutory and Commission requirements.

These records covered in this schedule were submitted prior to the implementation of the EDGAR system in 1993, or were otherwise not incorporated into EDGAR. This schedule does not provide disposition authority for records captured in the EDGAR System.
