EPA Records Schedule 750

Status: Draft, 12/31/2009

Title: Water Quality Standards Database (WQSDB)

Program: Water

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 108-025-02 - Manage Water Quality

- N1-412-09-14

Description:

The Water Quality Standards Database (WQSDB) provides Internet accessible water quality standards (WQS) and criteria by waterbody in text, table and map format for the 86 jurisdictions currently with EPA approved WQS. Some of the information in the WQSDB is extracted from EPA approved versions of state WQS documents stored in the Water Quality Standards Data Repository (WQSDR). The WQSDR is a collection of Web pages and files that is managed as part of the Office of Science and Technology Web site.

WQSDB reports include information on designated uses, waterbody names, state numeric water quality criteria, and EPA recommended numeric water quality criteria and the information can be compared across the nation. The data in both the WQSDB and WQSDR are used by decision-makers and the general public for program administration, watershed planning and other actions that could affect maintaining or achieving water quality goals.

November 28, 1975 is the date EPA promulgated the initial Federal water quality standards regulations related to existing uses [cite: 40 CFR 55334 (Nov. 28, 1975)]; and 40 CFR 131.10(g)].
