U.S. Office of Government Ethics

The U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE), previously a part of the Office of Personnel Management, was established as a separate agency on October 1, 1989 (5 U.S.C. app. § 401). OGE provides overall direction for executive branch policies in preventing conflicts of interest on the part of officers and employees of all executive branch agencies. OGE is the principal agency administering the Ethics in Government Act for the executive branch.

Office of General Counsel and Legal Policy

The Office of General Counsel and Legal Policy (OGC) is responsible for developing executive branch ethics program policies, for interpreting laws and regulations, for assisting agencies in legal and policy implementation of their ethics programs, and for reviewing legislation and recommending changes in conflict of interest and ethics statutes.

Item 1. Agency Statutory Conflict of Interest Waivers and Other Ethics Determinations. Records relating to the issuance of waivers and other ethics determinations submitted by agencies concerning potential or actual financial conflicts of interest, including:
