Office of the Director of National Intelligence

Front Office

Records Control Schedule

Mission Description

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC), overseeing and directing the implementation of the National Intelligence Program and acting as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to the national security. In addition to the Director, the Front Office and its staff serve the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI) and served the former position of Director of the Intelligence Staff (DIS). Effective September 1, 2010, the new position of Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) was established to replace the DIS as the first assistant to the DNI and PDDNI for intelligence mission integration. The Office of the DDNI/II and its subordinate organizations are covered in separate records control schedules. Effective October 1, 2010, all of the ODNI internal management duties and responsibilities of the DIS were transferred to a new position, the Chief Management Officer (CMO), whose records, which are related to management of the ODNI as an agency, are covered here and in the records control schedule for the Executive Secretary.

Application of Records Control Schedule Disposition Instructions

The disposition instructions in the records control schedule are mandatory. Any Federal records received or created by ODNI Front Office personnel or contractors not specifically covered by this schedule or the General Records Schedules are to be retained until such time as an applicable disposition authority approved by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) is obtained. To take into account the fluid nature of electronic filing, those responsible for implementing this schedule should be aware that record copies of record types described in this schedule are to receive the prescribed disposition wherever they are filed.

The Information Management Technical Officer with responsibility for ODNI Front Office records will support effective implementation of the disposition requirements of this schedule through the development and issuance of appropriate operational guidance and supplementary instructions necessary to assure adequate and proper documentation of the official mission, responsibilities, and actions of the office.

Note on Sensitivity of ODNI Front Office Records

The majority of the records addressed in this schedule are classified as national security information in accordance with statutory and national policy directives. Most of the records series described in this schedule contain information classified to the highest levels, requiring planning for their continued security until they are declassified or destroyed. The user of this schedule should assume that the subject records are highly classified unless noted otherwise. In addition, certain series may contain material covered by the Privacy Act or potentially exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act for reasons other than National Security, such as law enforcement information or commercially sensitive ("trade secrets") information.

Note on Vital Records

Records management personnel should be alert to the need to identify vital records so that they can be accessed quickly when needed. Vital records are (1) those that specify how the ODNI will operate in case of an emergency or disaster, (2) those necessary to the ODNI's continued mission critical operations during and after an emergency, and (3) those that must be preserved to protect the legal and financial rights and interests of the ODNI and of persons affected by the ODNI. Item 1 in this schedule is identified as a vital record.
