| These case files document litigation resulting from the breakin at the Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Watergate office complex on June 17, 1972. As these judicial proceedings relate directly to events surrounding the impeachment end resignation of President Richard M. Nixone the records have obvious historical and other research value.   |   |                                   |                  |                           |  |  |  |  |  |
